Prisoner Bolts Court House After Sentence This Morning; Caught Nearby After Chase

After a dramatic courtroom scene this morning, a burly prisoner escaped officers and fled the courthouse to be captured a block away after pursuers had fired a shot into the air.

George Richard Hunter, 32, Baltimore, who has a Maryland record as a sex offender, had just been sentenced to from five to 15 years in prison for attempting to assault a Highland Twp. housewife last May 31.

As he received the sentence, the husky, six-foot-two prisoner slumped to the floor in what officers said was a "faint." When he climbed to his feet he told Judge W. C. Sheely: "You might as well just execute me now."

FELL ON WET PORCH

A few minutes later as he was being taken down the stairway at the rear of the courthouse, Hunter broke free, leaped over a railing on a stair landing and dropped 10 feet to the corridor floor. He bolted for the front door of the courthouse and turned south on Baltimore St. with State Police Cpl. James A. Treas, Deputy Sheriff James G. Warren, Sheriff Dawson Miller and District Atty. Daniel E. Teeter in pursuit.

Shouting to the fleeing prisoner to halt, one of the officers fired a shot into the air near the Baltimore-High St. corner where Hunter darted around the corner to the west and then ran in to the rear of the corner Dalby property. There he slipped on a wet wooden porch floor and fell.

QUICKLY HANDCUFFED

The officers were upon him and quickly handcuffed his wrists behind his back and hustled him into Sheriff Warren's car which was parked in front of the courthouse.

Hunter was taken to jail and by 11 o'clock was on his way to Philadelphia to begin his sentence. He was taken there by Sheriff Miller and Deputy Sheriff Warren.

IN TEARS IN COURT

Hunter, who is six feet two inches tall, had pleaded with Judge Sheely for more than 10 minutes before sentence was passed for "an opportunity to find myself." Tears streamed down his cheeks and he had to stop several times to regain his composure. The judge waited patiently until he had finished and then announced the sentence after a brief consultation with Associate Judges Earl Guise and Clarence Deardoff.

Hunter was given two and a half to five years for assault with intent to ravish and five to 15 years for burglary with the sentences to run concurrently. Sentence was suspended on an assault charge, a charge of unlawful entry and unlawful possession of firearms. The gun in his possession at the time of his arrest last June 19 was ordered confiscated.

Hunter had entered pleas of "no defense" on all of the counts. On court order he had undergone psychiatric examinations at Harrisburg.

PROBLEMS OF ADJUSTMENT
When Hunter was called before the court this morning for sentence, Attorney Oscar F. Spicer appeared in his behalf and asked the court to consider the possibility of rehabilitation for the prisoner.

Then Hunter told the court he would like to say something. He spoke first of his "crimes against society" which he said had been committed "out of mental anguish and mental instability." He told the court he had been "under a lot of stress" while he was on parole in Maryland. He said he had had problems of adjustment and when his wife and six-year-old daughter left him "everything I had was gone."

Hunter said he was surprised to learn from his attorney that his Harrisburg report labeled him "uncooperative."

"BASICALLY I'M NOT BAD"

"I pray to God," he said to the judge, "you'll put me in a hospital where I will have an opportunity to find myself. Basically I'm not bad. I know I've hurt my loved ones but if I go to prison I'm lost. I begging you for an opportunity to keep my life from being thrown away. I need help."

When Judge Sheely sentenced Hunter to a "state correctional institution at Philadelphia" he noted that there will be an opportunity for psychiatric care.

When Hunter dropped to the floor, Sheriff Miller, who was standing directly back of him, said: "That's the way he's been at the jail — uncooperative."

HAS MARYLAND RECORD

When Hunter regained his feet he queried the judge about the meaning of the sentence and then made the comment inviting his "execution."

PITZER, REX AND ASQUITH ARE ELECTED

Paul G. Pitzer, Hiram E. Rex and Dean Asquith were elected Tuesday as Upper Adams School District directors, and thus become all that will remain after December 2 of a group of 12 present members of the board.

The Upper Adams District formed in 1959 had 30 members on its board, the 30 men who comprised the six school boards that made up the jointure.

Since then, at various elections, as terms expired, the board has been "whittled down" until on December 2 the 30 members will have been reduced to nine—the permanent size of the board.

Four of the 12 present members whose terms expire in December were candidates for the three posts to be filled. Paul G. Pitzer had 1,632 votes; Dean Asquith, 1,433; Hiram E. Rex, 1,397 and Oscar C. Rice Jr., 1,186. The three elected were Republican candidates. Rice is a Democrat.

The eight board members whose terms expire in December and who did not compete for the three posts remaining, include Emerson Noyce and Vincent Hawbecker of Butler Twp.; Donald Lady, Tyrone Twp.; George Scarpate and Stewart Grove, Ardentville; Carl Taylor and Luther Horick, Bendersville, and Orville MacBeth, Menallen Twp.

On Tuesday Bendersville gave Pitzer 166 votes; Rex, 135, Asquith 136 and Rice, 86; Menallen gave Pitzer 468, Rex 381, Asquith 372, Rice 258; Tyrone No. 1, Pitzer 82, Rex 85, Asquith 54, Rice 83; Tyrone No. 2, Pitzer 135, Rex 141, Asquith 108, Rice 92; Ardentville, Pitzer 198, Rex 154, Asquith 193, Rice 172; Butler, Pitzer 310, Rex 272, Asquith 291, Rice 252; Biglerville, Pitzer 273, Rex 229, Asquith 299 and Rice, 243.

DEATH OF PRESIDENT DIEM AND HIS BROTHER CALLED AN "ACCIDENTAL SUICIDE"

By ROY ESSOYAN

ASSOCIATED PRESS Staff Writer SAIGON (AP) — South Viet Nam's revolutionary government claimed today President Ngo Dinh Diem and his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, committed "accidental suicide" they were killed while struggling for a guard's pistol.

The latest official version of the brothers' deaths contradicts widely believed accounts that they were murdered by rebel troops in an armored personnel carrier last Saturday after they surrendered at a Roman Catholic church.

The revolutionary junta announced Saturday that Diem and Nhu, his closest adviser, shot themselves. Today Brig. Gen. Tran Tu Oai, minister of information in the new provisional government, gave this account to a news conference:

Democrats Win Control Of Commissioners' Office As GOP Wins Other Contests

Adams County for the first time in 28 years will have a Democratic board of county commissioners beginning January 6 and for the first time in 40 years a Republican district attorney.

Republicans swept other county offices Tuesday. Those were the results of the election in which more than 70 per cent of the registered voters in some districts went to the polls. All districts reported heavy voting.

The Warner Hospital Auxiliary will undertake another fund-raising project Friday in the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom... a colorful CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. This is probably the most pretentious effort these women, who are concerned chiefly with doing something for our hospital, have projected in a long time and they are hopeful it will be a success. It will be if you make an effort to visit the bazaar some time that day.

SCOTT IS LOW MAN

Atlee F. Rebert, 42-year-old Littlestown R. 2 silo and farm equipment salesman and construction businessman, received the largest number of votes in the commissioner race, 8,080. His father, Quintin D. Rebert, had been a commissioner a number of years ago. Second high was Harrison G. Fair, 37, York Springs R. 1 dairy farmer and tax collector with 8,003 votes. Both are Democrats.

The third commissioner is G. Edwin Motter, 51, a Gardner's store owner and fruit farmer and a Republican with 7,830 votes. Defeated was E. Donald Scott, 58, Baltimore St., farm owner and former farm implement dealer, who is completing his second term as a commissioner. He had 6,238 votes. His defeat removes all members of the present board from their commissioner posts as of January 6.

CRIST LEADS FIELD

Weikert has 6,717 votes to 6,673 for his fellow Democrat, Mrs. Anna Marie Cole, 43, Gettysburg R. 6. With more than 200 military and absentee ballots yet to be counted, there is a possibility that the third auditor could be determined by the mailed ballots which will be counted in two weeks.

LeRoy Winebrenner, 63, 449 Baltimore St., borough engineer and incumbent county surveyor, was re-elected by a vote of 7,884 to 7,448 over the Democratic candidate Harry Knox, 58, Gettysburg R. 6.

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, was selected for another term as coroner. The 76-year-old popular Chambersburg St. physician had 9,182 votes, the highest number given to any candidate.

80 GOP JOBS MAY GO

Observers believed Scott's defeat was caused by massive splits in Republican tickets, for the Republicans were able to pile up majorities for their other candidates, even unseating Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller. By their action the Republicans lost control of about 80 to 90 county jobs which are filled by the commissioners' office, assessments office, county home positions, etc.

Prothonotary Miller in losing to George F. Weaver 56, Gettysburg R. 4, 8,524 to 6,794 seemed to maintain the average number of Democrat votes cast for the various candidates, but was outvoted by the Republicans. Miller sought his third term.

Associate Judge Clarence D. Deardoff, 73, Cashtown, was returned to office, getting 8,797 votes to 6,340 for his Democratic opponent, former Gettysburg Mayor Wilbur L. Plank.

FIRST SINCE 1919

Attorney Gerald R. Walmer, 37, Bendersville, on January 6 will become the first Republican district attorney in Adams County in 40 years. The last time a Republican was named to the post was in 1919 when the late Raymond F. Topper was elected in 1919. Walmer had 8,572 votes to 6,718 for his Democratic opponent, Attorney Ronald J. Hagerman, 31, McSherrystown.

Carl S. Menchey, 67, 138 Stehwehr Ave., was elected to his third term as register and recorder by a vote of 8,129 to 7,190 for his Democratic opponent George W. Raughinbaugh, 43, Gettysburg R. 4.

The two Republican county auditors were re-elected, and the Democratic incumbent is apparently elected by a slight margin. Mrs. Ruth A. Frey, 38, Abbottstown R. 1, one of the present auditors, was re-elected with 8,538 votes. Mrs. Eleanor M. Linebaugh, 59, Fairfield was renamed with 7,925 votes. Armor M. Weikert, 81, of 63 W. High St. is the third high in the race to select three auditors.

The split tickets, referendum, three constitutional amendments and the large turnout of voters slowed the county so much that the last district, Straban Twp., did not report to the courthouse until 11:30 this morning. It was approximately 3 o'clock this morning before the first 22 of the 44 districts had reported. The first district to report, Hamiltonban No. 2, did not report its 29 votes until 10:30 Tuesday night, 2 1/2 hours after the polls had closed.

FARMERS HERE ARE OFFERED DROUGHT LOAN

"The second year of drought in Pennsylvania has caused one of the worst livestock feeding problems for many farmers in the state," Raymond J. Kerstetter, state director of the Farmers' Home Administration, said today.

To ease the burden on the farmers of Pennsylvania the Farmers' Home Administration has declared Adams and York Counties emergency loan areas. This brings the total to 48 counties designated in Pennsylvania.

This federal aid program is authorized to make loans at three per cent to farmers that cannot obtain credit from other sources on suitable terms. "The main purpose of the emergency loan program is to help farmers preserve and maintain foundation herds of cattle until they can produce feed for them," Kerstetter said.

Reports received from FHA county offices and the weather bureau indicated a deficiency in rainfall since April 1, in the designated counties of minus eight per cent.

To be eligible a farmer must be primarily engaged in farming and have reasonable prospects for success in the farming operations he plans to carry on.

Funds can be advanced for the purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, insecticides and farm supplies, the repair of equipment, payment of one year's taxes, rent, insurance and other essential farm operating expenses. Loans may not be made to refinance existing debts or to compensate applicants for their losses. Applications can be made at the Farmers' Home Administration Adams Electric Co-op building, rear N. Stratton St., Gettysburg.

TRUAX PRAISES GOP VICTORY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican State Chairman Craig Truax said today Tuesday's election results presaged a victory in Pennsylvania for the GOP presidential nominee in 1964.

"Taking the state as a whole," he said in a statement, "the returns showed confidence among the voters in the Republican party and the administration of Gov. Scranton.

"The voting emphasizes the renewed strength of the Republican party and the determination of its leaders and workers everywhere to build an even stronger organization for the important elections ahead.

"Evidence of this is shown in the returns in Philadelphia where our candidate for mayor, James T. McDermott, lost by the same city where boss Bill Green (Democratic city chairman) turned in a 331,000 majority for the Democratic presidential candidate in 1960. Green won the mayoralty four years ago by 210,000 votes.

"Significantly, Green had President Kennedy make a hurried trip into Philadelphia this year, but the maneuver failed to produce the huge majority Democrats had forecast as proof of the popularity of the President.

"In 1964, Mr. Kennedy will be highly vulnerable as the Democratic candidate for re-election."

JOHNSON WINS GAVIN'S SEAT

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—Republican Albert W. Johnson, majority leader of the State House of Representatives, won the 23 District congressional seat Tuesday as Pennsylvania Republicans regained a 14-13 edge in the U.S. House.

With 357 of 456 precincts reporting from the traditional Republican district, the 57-year-old Johnson led 44,498 to 30,137 and was carrying all of the eight counties in a northwestern district that has not elected a Democrat to Congress in this century.

Johnson and William T. Hagerty, 65-year-old Democrat from Clearfield, Pa., where he was prothonotary from 1949 until 1961, vied for the seat left vacant by the death of Republican Leon H. Gavin.

Johnson's election restores the congressional breakdown to 178 Republicans against 257 Democrats.

Johnson, who has served in the State House since 1946, will serve Gavin's unexpired term.

SAY 200,000 HUNTERS OUT ON FIRST DAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pennsylvania's drought-delayed small game season opened Tuesday with relatively few new forest fires or hunting accidents.

An estimated 200,000 hunters, almost half last year's total, turned out for the opener, delayed three days by a statewide ban on hunting and fishing as a guard against the threat of fires.

State game officials attributed the low turnout to the week-day start and statewide elections. The season originally was scheduled to open Saturday.

ONLY FIRE FIRES

Samuel S. Cobb, chief of forest protection in the Forests and Waters Department, said only five new fires were reported, all minor.

Continuous scattered rain and public spirited cooperation by hunters in keeping with a ban on smoking and camp fires helped keep the number of new fires down, he said.

Drenching overnight rains throughout the state helped ease the fire threat even further.

NO FATAL ACCIDENTS

Will Johns, public information officer for the Game Commission, reported no fatal accidents and 41 nonfatal. There were several heart attack deaths resulting from hunting.

In one of the most unusual accidents, David Hartman, 13, of Union County, was wounded by a stray shot while getting off a school bus. However, he was not injured seriously.

Cobb said new fires broke out in Fayette County, near Frackville in Schuylkill County, at Stroudsburg and two in the Huntingdon area.

"This was very good, considering the fire threat we face in the extremely dry eastern and southern areas," he said, adding:

"We're in good shape for this week at least. The greatest danger of forest fires is over in many areas after Monday night's rainfall. I can see no reason for reinstating the ban."

As for hunting, Johns said Tuesday's weather was too bright and too warm for most hunters.

Dry woods made turkey hunting especially difficult, with the turkey kill off as much as 60 per cent in some areas.

"The best reports were on ringnecks and rabbits," he said. "The kill on turkey, quail, squirrel and grouse was surprisingly low."

The Game Commission expects the heaviest turnout this Saturday.

SEEK HOMES FOR 3 DOGS

It's open house at the Jackson Kennels, Mummansburg Rd., where Dr. R. B. Jackson is determined to make at least three homes happier by the addition of man's best friend, compliments of the local veterinarian.

Dr. Jackson vouches for the personalities of the three animals who have arrived at his canine domain during the past few days, and he feels that the public should not be deprived of the pleasure of owning a nice pet any longer than necessary.

As a matter of fact, in his advertisement today, he advises "Don't call—Come," which seems to indicate a degree of urgency in his desire to spread happiness to both man and beast.

He describes one as a "small, gregarious male about 1½ years old . . . well-educated, having attended school daily before being picked up by Chief Bartlett . . . recommended for apartment living."

Another is a medium-sized male Collie . . . friendly . . . not yet ready for the living room . . . and possessing an enthusiastic tail.

Dr. Jackson refers to a "large, family-sized male" as being "something of a ladies' man" since he was delivered to the kennels Sunday by a "bevy of college beauties."

Introduces Bill To Excuse Amish

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Old Order Amish are among the persons who would be exempt from participation in the federal social Security program under a bill introduced today by Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa.

The bill would permit members of churches whose established doctrines forbid participation in such programs on religious grounds to waive their benefit rights and be exempted from Social Security taxes.

Applications for exemption would be asked to show that members of their faith make adequate provision for elderly members to prevent their needing any public aid in their later years.

Seven Wallendas Injured When Circus Wire Breaks

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—A wire snapped beneath the Great Wallendas circus troupe Tuesday as it practiced "the seven," a human pyramid. Six were injured, none seriously.

Karl Wallenda, 57, leader of the troupe, said the wire, which was stretched between two trees at winter quarters, was only 12 feet off the ground.

"All we know is there was a big crash," he said. "Something gave. If we had been high, at least two would have been killed."

It was the first time the Wallendas had tried "the seven" since the pyramid came apart high above the concrete floor of the Detroit Coliseum in January 1962. Two were killed and one was injured so badly he will never walk again.

At Tuesday's rehearsal Jenny Faughnan was easing into the chair to form the top of the pyramid when the wire snapped. Gunther Wallenda was struck under the chin by a shoulder pole and suffered facial cuts. Louis Murillo, 29, received wire burns and Karl Wallenda was x-rayed for possible pelvic injuries.

Paul Jordan, 33; Herman Wallenda, 62, and Jenny were bruised. Andy Anderson, 28, wasn't hurt.

The troupe has a date to perform the pyramid at Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 20.

NOTE LINCOLN

but which did not move until about 11.

LAUDED BY EVERETT

Mr. Sheads offered his audience of about 50 persons mimeographed copies of the Everett oration filling 25 typed pages. He said Lincoln held his manuscript in his hands as he spoke for three minutes or less and referred frequently to the papers. Reports differ on the amount and frequency of the applause that greeted the address.

Lincoln returned to the Wills House for lunch by 3 p.m. and then walked with John Burns, citizen hero of the battle, to the Presbyterian Church where he attended part of a patriotic service arranged there by his host, David Wills.

Mr. Sheads said Mr. Everett apparently was one of the first to recognize the greatness of Lincoln's words here and told Lincoln he had "come nearer the mark" in a few minutes that he had in hours.

$1,000 GIFT

As he introduced Mr. Sheads Tuesday evening at the meeting at the Old Dorm at the seminary, Dr. Charles Glatfelter, president of the society, quoted from The Compiler of November 9, 1863, when that newspaper expressed the opinion that November 19 of that year its destined to prominent mention in the history of our now historic town.

The society's monthly business session followed at which the report of the treasurer, Mrs. George F. Eberhart, revealed a new gift of $1,000 from the Musselman Foundation and $800 from the county commissioners. The society's funds at the beginning of the month showed a balance of $2,658.

Berwyn Russell of the society's staff announced the accession of a ladder back chair that had been in the home of John Burns. A member of the society, however, rose to identify the chair as dating from the James Gettys era and as coming from the Danner home here. The chair's history is to be cleared up for proper identification.

NEED EDISON CONE

The key to the former Fairview School in Straban Twp., a paddle and a hatchet used at the school were presented to the society and will be placed in its model schoolroom of yesteryear. A number of books have been given to the society and a Lincoln Highway dedication marker. Several cylindrical records were received from Rose Brame of York Springs and Mr. Russell asked if anyone has an Edison cone. "We have these records and a machine on which to play them but we must find one of those cones first," he said.

The suggestion was made that a special Lincoln display be placed in the Old Dorm for the 100th anniversary of November 19.

Dr. Glatfelter announced most committee assignments of last year are being continued. Mrs. Eberhart has been named chairman of the membership committee and George Olinger has been added to that committee. William C. Darrah continues as chairman of the program committee.

Dr. Robert Bloom has been added to the library and museum committee and Miss Ruth McIlhenny and her county history committee have been continued. Barton Olinger was continued as Indian history committee chairman and Miss Nina Storrick continues as chairman of the necrology committee.

Birthday felicitations were extended to Mrs. Cora H. Berkey, who observed her 93rd birthday anniversary last Sunday. Mrs. Berkey was present at the meeting.

among other things, air conditioners, a display case for the Snack Bar and an obelisk table for the surgical suite, all of which totalled more than $21,000. Every dollar of this fund was raised by auxiliary members.

The members are all volunteers... that is the active members. In addition there are life, honorary and affiliated members. The honorary category comprises men who donate $5 a year dues.

Membership in the auxiliary in 1932 when it was founded totalled 237. Today the membership is more than 1,150... and more are welcome.

The women have been working very diligently for many months to stock the bazaar with attractive items for Christmas gifts.

For instance — Littlestown members of the medical auxiliary have been meeting regularly in the basement of Dr. Leonard Potter's home molding and decorating candles... another group of women have been attending a workshop at the home of Mrs. James Allison, W. Broadway, doing needlework for the bazaar... Mrs. Charles Weaver, Baltimore St., and her associates have been working for several months on Christmas tree skirts... Mrs. George Hikes, Hay St., and other members have also been working for weeks on pine cone and fruit arrangements for Christmas decorations. Altogether, more than 150 women are working for the bazaar.

We can assure you that the bazaar will be something to be remembered... you'll find many Christmas gift suggestions, you'll enjoy yourself and if you make any purchases you will be contributing toward the support of the Warner Hospital.

LOSE SERVICE

The East Berlin borough council Tuesday evening announced that water and sewer service will be discontinued for residents who are delinquent in payment of service charges. It also authorized the fire company to trade the old ambulance on a new vehicle. The ambulance is titled in the borough's name, and the fire company will pay all costs of transfer except title costs.

Atty. Oscar F. Spicer, borough solicitor, told council that notice concerning the laying of new sidewalks along Harrisburg and Abbotstown Sts. was incorrect and that construction will be done by the borough within 30 days instead of 10 days. Council adopted a new fire prevention code, recommended by Spicer, on a motion by Horace Baker. The borough also extended the liability insurance coverage at the same cost for another year.

Members referred to Spicer an objection by George Maul to the borough's curbing in front of his property near Center Square.

The Hanover Construction Company will be asked to either flush the water line as the result of damages to water boxes during construction of the state highway through the borough or pay damages.

John Saylor, borough engineer, discussed the advisability of installing an automatic pumping device to the water system at a cost of $700 for parts and suggested that the borough provide labor for the conversion. Council took the recommendation under advisement.

temporarily lifted. The Army reinstated a Berlin exercise which had been twice postponed. More than 5,000 Americans, the entire U.S. brigade in Berlin, were ordered into their annual fall maneuvers to test city defenses.

A U. S. spokesman said the exercise is limited to Berlin and there is no possibility of a confrontation with the Russians. Allied officials mull over a variety of likely reasons for the Soviet blockade—the third in less than a month—and its sudden withdrawal.

One theory was that the Soviets wanted to force the Western Powers into negotiation on something which they have declared unnegotiable—their right by conquest to set their own rules for access to Berlin.

REDS FLEX MUSCLES

Another was that the Soviets wanted to flex their muscles in advance of Communist bloc talks intended to denounce Red China's heresies. The Peking Reds charge the Russians are too soft with the West.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Invasion From Mars: A horrible fantasy of war waged on the United States by fearsome, space-conquering men from Mars brought near panic to that part of the nation's radio audience which was not tuned in Sunday night on Charlie McCarthy's rival radio program. In the double-click tempo of the news broadcasters, the fiction of a Columbia program became so realistic that hysteria prevailed among listeners throughout the United States and Canada. Residents of Gettysburg and Adams county were concerned over the broadcast. Neighbors rushed from house to house inquiring if their radio carried the "raid" program, while others simply stopped listening after hearing some of the "gruesome" details. Reports of an increased number of telephone calls to out-of-town places, especially points in New Jersey, where the "raid" centered, also were reported. Women fainted and men prepared to take their families to the mountains. People gathered in groups to pray for salvation. All over the metropolitan area panicky persons jumped into their automobiles and headed for the open spaces to escape the hypothetical bombing of New York. The broadcast was an adaptation of H. G. Wells' imaginative "War of the Worlds," further dramatized and enacted by Orson Welles, the 23-year-old Broadway theatrical prodigy. Welles Americanized the locale and situations. Four times during the program, CBS pointed out, the announcer stressed that the story was nothing but fiction. This comforting reiteration either escaped many of those who tuned in for the full program or was lost entirely to part-time listeners or late tuners-in for it failed to prevent a hysteria unknown to the United States since the World War. Just as the continent was "toppling" into oblivion, the real announcer cut in to explain simply that the audience had been listening to a dramatization of Welles' book.

Merrymakers Frolic In Parade: While several thousand spectators lined Gettysburg's streets, local Halloween celebrators, joined by many from nearby towns, paraded here Monday evening to mark hilariously the eve of All Saints. More than 1,000 paraders filed past the judges' stand in center square where prize winners were singled out and called to the platform for their cash awards. The four division parade, each accompanied by band or drum corps, moved under the direction of Chief Marshal LeRoy H. Winebrenner and his aides, Jane and Charlotte Winebrenner and Ray M. Hoffman. Wilbur J. Stallsmith, general chairman of the committee from the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion which sponsored the affair, and his assistants helped form the column and served as escorts along the line of march.

Singmaster Novel Published: A chapter in the patriotic history of Adams county never before chronicled in fiction and never compiled previously by historians, forms the background of "Rifles for Washington," absorbing new book written by Elsie Singmaster Lewars. It was released by the publishers on Tuesday. The book, which was about one year in writing, was conceived nearly four years ago in response to her publishers' request for a boys' story of the Revolution and the first clue to the part of Adams county in the American Revolution was found in this entry in a Moravian diary dated July 8, 1775, at Bethlehem: "a company of provincials from York county passed

Today's Talk

WHEN YOU'RE GOING GOOD
The dietetic experts tell us that the time to stop eating is just before you think that you have had enough. In other words, just before hunger is fully satisfied. Most of the physical ills of mankind result from over-eating.

In the literary field it would be a good idea to adopt this plan — to stop writing at the point when you "are going good," as the late Ernest Hemingway once told the late Thomas Wolfe. Wolfe worked at such a terrific speed that he found it ever difficult to stop. All of his novels had to cut half—and more, according to Maxwell Perkins, then editor at Scribner's.

I spent several evenings with Thomas Wolfe, and I never talked with a more sincere artist, or with one who strove so honestly to express himself. But he wrote himself out by his speed in writing too much in a short space of time. He took no time in which to rest. He never paused to relax — when he was "going good."

We all reach high points in our lives. Each day we do, each year — and there is at least one supreme height to which all men and women arrive during their lifetime — the zenith of their ideals or achievements. But when we feel that we are going good we are apt to attempt the task of doing too good. Many an artist has spoiled an otherwise fine painting by trying to make it better. There is always a good stopping point.

When you're going good, it is wise to rest on your laurels for a time and then go back — to win another day, in perhaps even better fashion!

I am a firm believer in shorter hours — and better work. Everybody and everything would be better off on such a basis. The terrible wars, in which so-called civilization becomes engaged, owe their inception, among other causes, to the fact that more attention has been paid to more and more rapid means for the destruction of life, than for means to save it.

Just Folks

THIS DANGEROUS WORLD
Isn't it curious; isn't it queer
Age has discovered so much to fear
And has changed the world in so grim a way
That it isn't safe for a child to play?

The mother knows not a moment's ease,
Death and danger are all she sees.
She knows the risk of the city street
And she feels the hurt which her child may meet.
What in the end shall be said of us
Who have builded a world so dangerous?
Is our civilization worth its cost
If the joy of being a child is lost?

Isn't it strange as our children play
That "don't" is ever the word we say?
We boast our progress, yet stand afraid
Of the grim machines which our skill has made.

through on their way to Boston." From that lead Mrs. Lewars studied war records and other official data and followed every allusion to the riflemen from York county who formed later the first company of the Continental line and afterwards the first company in Wayne's command. The publishers say of this book, "In no other book within our knowledge is shown so lifelike and true-seeming a picture of the experiences and feelings of the private soldiers in Washington's army. It is Miss Singmaster's finest piece of work."

The title of the book was decided upon while Mrs. Lewars, in a talk before the Gettysburg Mothers' Club some months ago, told of her new book and mentioned the fact that up to that time it lacked a title. One member suggested "Rifles for Washington." The publishers approved and the name "stuck." The book is published by the Houghton, Mifflin Co., New York.

Donates Site For New School: The new Central Catholic high school building, to replace the joint high and grade school building destroyed by fire last winter, will stand on a tract of land at the corner of Midway and South St., McSherrystown. This was disclosed with the announcement that Attorney C. J. Delone, Carlisle street, Hanover, has donated to St. Mary's parish the corner property containing nearly 10 acres as a site for the school. The deed has been turned over to the Rev. Patrick McGee, rector. It is not expected that erection of a high school building will be undertaken until the new St. Mary's grade school and social center is completed.

SENATE SPLIT ON FOREIGN AID PLAN, 43-40

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has demonstrated that President Kennedy's foreign aid program has an almost equal number of enemies and friends in both political parties.

By a see-saw 43-40 vote the Senate turned back Tuesday a challenge by Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., against a bipartisan compromise worked out last week by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

PROPOSED CUT

Sensing the hostility against the program, Mansfield and Dirksen proposed to cut an authorization bill back from the $4.2-billion ceiling approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to $3.8 billion. Ellender asked for an additional $75-million reduction.

If there hadn't been some fast footwork by the leaders Ellender would have won.

Faced with defeat, administration lieutenants sought help among senators who ordinarily support the President but had gone against the Mansfield-Dirksen compromise he was resigned to accepting.

Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., switched his vote on the Ellender amendment from yes to no. Sens. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., and Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., found it convenient to withdraw their support and to "pair" themselves with absent opponents of the amendment.

The pairing device is used to record the position of senators, one or both of whom may be absent, without influencing the roll call result.

The three changes converted a 43-42 victory for Ellender into a 43-40 defeat.

On that test, the Democrats split 29-28 and the Republicans 14-12 with the majority of both parties opposing the amendment. The Senate then turned around and adopted, 42-40, an amendment by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. It cut $25 million off development loan funds and rescinded previous authority to continue this program for the next two years.

This represented an expression of the majority's opinion that there had better be an extensive overhauling of the foreign aid program next year or else.

On this test, the Democrats wound up deadlocked, 29-29. The Republicans voted 13 to 11 in favor of the Morse proposal.

Wants To Teach Boxing To Girls

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—A Long Island, N.Y. advertiser wants students at the University of North Carolina branch here to take up boxing.

An ad in the current issue of the Carolinian, student newspaper, urges readers to "learn to box—be a master in the art of self-defense."

Perhaps the advertiser was misled by the Branch's new name—the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. It used to be Women's College of the University of North Carolina.

And 99 per cent of its student body remains very much female.

Adams-Franklin Basketball League Opens December 17; Quincy Will Not Take Part

The Adams-Franklin Scholastic Basketball League will open its 1963-64 schedule Tuesday, December 17, according to the schedule recently released.

Quincy has dropped from the league which means the Adams Division will include only Bermudian, Fairfield, Littlestown and New Oxford. The Franklin Division will again consist of Buchanan, Fannett-Metal, Greencastle, Scotland and St. Thomas.

The 1963-4 season will be run in divisions with trophies for each division champion but when it comes to PIAA play the combined league will send representatives into the playoffs.

PLAYOFF SETUP

A Class B team must win its league championship to compete if the league is made up of Class B and C teams. A Class C school may finish no lower than third in the A-B-C school league and still compete. If a Class B school wins the overall title there could be both B and C representation. If a Class C school wins, there can be only one.

Littlestown has been selected as the school to serve as president and secretary of the combined league this year, succeeding St. Thomas. The presidencies and secretarieships are rotated among the schools.

The schedule:

Tuesday, Dec. 17, Buchanan at St. Thomas, Fannett-Metal at Scotland, New Oxford at Littlestown, Fairfield at Greencastle.

Friday, Dec. 20, Fairfield at Buchanan, Greencastle at New Oxford, Littlestown at Fannett-Metal, Scotland at Bermudian.

Friday, Jan. 3, Fannett-Metal at Greencastle, New Oxford at Fairfield, Bermudian at Littlestown, St. Thomas at Scotland.

Tuesday, Jan. 7, Greencastle at Bermudian, Littlestown at St. Thomas, New Oxford at Buchanan, Fairfield at Fannett-Metal.

BROWN ADDS TO HIS RECORD

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown's statistics become more awesome every Sunday. The Cleveland fullback, playing his seventh year of pro ball, soon will become the greatest ball carrier in National Football League history.

Counting all ball carrying means—rushing, pass catching and returns of interceptions, kickoffs, punts and fumbles—Brown has gained 11,086 yards for the Browns. That leaves him only 231 short of the record of 11,317 held by Ollie Matson, now of the Detroit Lions.

Brown remains way out front in the 1963 rushing race with 1,194 yards, his fifth season of 1,000 yards or more. Jim Taylor of Green Bay is next with 639 yards.

OTTO GRAHAM IS HAPPIEST COACH IN U.S.

By LOU BLACK
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—Who is the happiest football coach in the United States today?

"I am," insists Otto Graham, a great quarterback who turned down scores of coaching offers to coach football and direct athletics at the Coast Guard Academy.

There is none of the big-time pressure to win, but the 42-year-old Graham, now a full commander, and his Cadets have won all six of their games this season.

SOLID FAVORITES

The Cadets are a solid favorite to take their seventh straight against Central Connecticut State, 1-5, Saturday in one of their two remaining games.

In the 21 years that football has been played at the academy, the best previous mark was 6-0-1 in 1951.

"I'm just having lots of fun," said Graham, an All-America at Northwestern and an All-Pro with the Cleveland Browns.

GETS MANY OFFERS

In the five years here, Graham reportedly has turned down more offers than most coaches get in a lifetime. His record so far is 23-14-1.

Said Graham:

"What I like about it here is that we don't have to win at all costs. We want to win, yes, but there's no premium on it. More important, we've been having lots of fun, the players and I."

"Once the season is finished, most coaches have to hop into a car and start recruiting. The recruiting M does is the mailing of pamphlets to high school coaches showing what the academy has to offer a boy."

PICK FIGHTERS OF THE MONTH

NEW YORK (AP) — Three boxing champions who did not defend their title—Emile Griffith, Carlos Ortiz and Sugar Ramos—were named Fighters of the Month by Ring Magazine today for their performances in non-title bouts.

Griffith, welterweight champion, defeated Joe Gonzalez. Ortiz, lightweight titleholder, outpointed Maurice Cullen. Ramos, featherweight kingpin, stopped Sammy McSpadden.

The biggest move in the ratings was by Joey Archer of New York, who jumped from fourth to second in the middleweight rankings after outpointing Ruben Carter.

In the heavyweight division, Cleveland Williams of Houston moved from fifth to fourth and Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., advanced from sixth to fifth.

Former champion Floyd Patterson, who has been inactive, dropped two notches to sixth.

ALFRED KLEIN DIES TUESDAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Alfred M. Klein, 62, a member of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission and of the Executive Committee of the World Boxing Association, died Tuesday.

Cause of death was not disclosed.

Klein, a former newspaperman, had written several books and once was associate counsel for the Kefauver Crime Committee.

Klein was named to the State Commission in 1955 by former Gov. George M. Leader. While on the commission he conducted a sweeping boxing investigation in Pennsylvania that resulted in a six-month moratorium on the sport.

Klein's death leaves two vacancies on the commission. James Crowley, the chairman, resigned in June leaving Paul Sullivan as the lone member of the Democratic trio named by Leader.

Services will be held Thursday with burial in Haym Solomon Memorial Park at Fazer, Chester County.

GAME POSTPONED

The Chambersburg Central-Faust Junior High football game scheduled for Tuesday evening was postponed due to rain and was tentatively rescheduled for Saturday evening.

Eddie Machen Wins Over Bull McMurray

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Machen, 197, now fighting out of Berkeley, Calif., knocked out Bull McMurray, 208½, Sacramento, in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round boxing main event Tuesday night.

McMurray was counted out by referee Vern Bybee in 2:13 of the seventh round. There were no earlier knockdowns, but Machen compiled a big lead in points. He stopped McMurray with two hard rights to the head and body followed by a left hook to the body.

The referee's score card had it 6-0 Machen. One judge had it 5-0-1 Machen while the other had Machen ahead 4-2.

The fight was in Memorial Auditorium before 3,311.

LONG AERIAL GIVES DELONE JAYVEES WIN

A 41-yard pass play from Bill Bollinger to Ken Wierman on the next to last play of the first half accounted for the only score as the Delone High School junior varsity football team closed its season by nipping Hanover 7-0 Tuesday evening at McSherrystown.

Hanover made two threats. In the first period the Hawks reached the Delone 18 where Ron Buntz recovered a fumble by Bittinger, and in the last period Hanover was stopped by a pass interception on the Delone 25.

The Squires, who finished their season with a 2-5 record, got to Hanover's seven in the third period where it surrendered the ball.

New Leaders In MAC Statistics

New leaders emerged this week in two individual categories in the Middle Atlantic Conference's university division.

The passing combination of Bucknell quarterback Don Rodgers and end Tom Mitchell, accounted for the change, with Rodgers taking over the total offense lead and Mitchell moving to the fore in pass receiving.

Rodgers, who also leads the division in passing, has collected 425 yards in total offense in three MAC games. Mitchell has caught 18 passes for 239 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Vance Johnston, Gettysburg quarterback who missed last week's game with Lafayette due to an injury, is the punting leader with a 37.9 average. The Bullets lead in team passing with an average of 185.7 yards per game and six touchdowns.

PITTSBURGH'S MAZUREK IS BACK OF WEEK

By WILL GRIMSLEY

The game was half over, and Pittsburgh was taking a foot-balling beating from Syracuse. Going into the third period, the New Yorkers were ahead 21-8.

A swirling snowstorm played hide-and-seek with the sun at Pitt Stadium. Lightning flashed and there were sharp thunder-claps.

Then, a bolt struck Syracuse—190-pound, 5-foot-10 bolt Fred Mazurek.

BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE

Mazurek streaked 41 yards for a touchdown. Then he began hitting targets with short passes and, before you knew it, Pitt had scored again. Mazurek shot a pass to end Al Grigallunas: Touchdown No. 3 in the quarter, and Pitt led 28-21.

Syracuse added another touchdown in the fourth period. Mazurek went down under a pile of tacklers and had to leave the game with a leg injury. Just before the end, he hobbled back onto the field and drove his team to a clinching score.

Pitt was the winner 35-27, and, on the strength of his brilliant individual performance, Mazurek was named today The Associated Press' Back of the Week.

CLOSE CONTESTS

Mazurek won the Back of the Week nomination in a close contest with a number of other backfield stars, including the great Roger Staubach of Navy. Do Trull of Baylor, Billy Lohridge of Georgia Tech, Bob Schweickert of Virginia Tech, Junior Edge of North Carolina and Jimmy Sidle of Auburn.

Other outstanding backs included Tom Nowatzke, Indiana; Ken Waldrop, Army; Jim Grabowski, Illinois; Tony Crosby, Texas; Bob Timberlake, Michigan; Pete Liske, Penn State; Cosmo Iacavazzi of Princeton, and Larry Brinkley, Florida State.

TWO GOALS BY ROGER COTE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It isn't often a hockey player scores two unassisted goals in one game. Roger Cote of the Springfield Indians did it in the American Hockey League Tuesday night.

Cote's two goals plus his close checking and an assist on another Springfield goal, led the Indians to a 5-2 victory over the Quebec Aces on Quebec ice.

The victory in the only AHL game scheduled made up in part for a 6-2 defeat Springfield suffered in Quebec last Sunday and enabled the Indians to tie the Aces for third place in the tight Eastern Division race. The Indians and Aces each have 10 points, only one behind Hershey and Providence tied for first.

Cote got both his goals in the second period to break a 1-1 tie. His first came when his shot, tipped in off the stick of Quebec's John Hanna. The second, which proved to be the winning goal, came when he flipped his own rebound past Ernie Wakely, the Quebec goalie.

BAYLOR BACK TAKES LEAD

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Trull, Baylor's brilliant quarterback, has taken over the total offense lead from Navy's Roger Staubach, the latest major college football statistics disclosed today.

Trull, a pin-point passer, has gained an over all total of 1,491 yards in 241 plays while Staubach shows 1,420 yards gained in 245 plays according to the figures compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau.

Trull also leads the passers for the second straight week. By completing 20 of 40 passes against Texas Christian last Saturday, the Baylor star increased his lead in completions from eight over Staubach to 13 over George Mira of Miami of Florida.

Jimmy Sidle of Auburn is No. 1 in rushing with 648 yards, followed by Tom Vaughn at 642.

Honor Athletes After 25 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—Marshall Goldberg of Pitt, Raymond T. Frey of Lebanon Valley and Frank Rabold of Lehigh are among 25 men named Tuesday to receive Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary All-American award.

The award is open to anyone who played senior varsity football but it is given for success in life in the 25 years after graduation rather than for outstanding football achievement. The current list was chosen from the class of 1938.

Goldberg was an outstanding football player at the University of Pittsburgh. He later was vice president and managing director of a machinery corporation in Chicago.

HANK BAUER MAY BE NEXT BIRD MANAGER

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Baltimore Coach Hank Bauer emerged today as the leading candidate for the Orioles' managing job following the withdrawal of Eddie Stanky.

Baltimore club president Lee MacPhail acknowledged Tuesday he had offered the post to Stanky, former star National League infielder and ex-manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and said he had three or four other candidates in mind but declined to identify them.

It was understood, however, that MacPhail was giving serious consideration to Bauer as well as to Bob Scheffing, Solly Hemus and Charlie Metro. He hadn't ruled out Stanky despite Eddie's decision to remain as personnel director of the Cardinals.

FORMER YANKEE

"We're in no particular hurry," said MacPhail, who has been seeking a manager since the dismissal of Billy Hitchcock at the end of the 1963 baseball season.

Stanky, who managed the Cards from 1952 to May, 1955, has been in the Cards' front office since 1959.

The longer MacPhail waits the more likely it becomes that his eventual pick will be Bauer.

The former outfield star of the New York Yankees joined the Orioles as a coach last year following a brief fling as player, then as manager of the Kansas City Athletics.

SCHIEFFING IN RADIO

Scheffing, who was dismissed as manager of the Detroit Tigers last summer, has entered the radio field as broadcaster of the Tigers' games. Metro, who was head coach in the Chicago Cubs' unique managing system in 1962, is a scout with the Chicago White Sox. Hemus managed the Cards from 1959 to July, 1961, and was a New York Met coach in 1962-63.

BLACK HAWKS NIP RANGERS

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks, riding well out in front of the National Hockey League, scored in the first and last minutes of their game with New York Tuesday night for a 3-2 victory over the Rangers.

Bill Hay's goal in the first 27 seconds of play and Bobby Hull's clincher with 20-seconds remaining gave the Hawks their eighth victory against one loss and two ties.

It also marked the ninth straight game in which the Hawks have not been defeated, tying a club record set in the 1939-40 season.

Hay's goal and another by Stan Mikita in the second period gave the Hawks a comfortable 2-0 lead before the partisan crowd of 12,642. But the Rangers retaliated on a second period goal by Dick Meissner and a tying goal by Vic Hadfield at 14:38 of the third period.

The victory gave the front-running Hawks a whopping six-point lead over second place Montreal.

Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State has a record of 111 victories against 37 defeats for 17 seasons.

LISTON AND CLAY WILL FIGHT IN FEB.

By FRANK PITMAN

DENVER (AP) — Mid-February is the time and Los Angeles is probably the site for Sonny Liston's defense of his heavyweight boxing championship against Cassius Clay.

In a zany setting Tuesday, they signed contracts for a 15-round title fight expected to gross a record $6 to $8 million.

Two separate Los Angeles groups, one headed by former champion Joe Louis, offered guarantees of more than $1 million for the right to stage the battle.

O'HER BIDS

Jack Nilon, Liston's advisor, said other bids have been received from Minneapolis, Chicago, Miami and Las Vegas. He said the site will be announced within two weeks.

Clay, unbeaten since turning pro in 1960, will get 22½ per cent of the receipts — described as a record for a challenger.

Liston, who received 12½ per cent in his challenge fight against Floyd Patterson in Chicago, will get 40 per cent.

SOME COMEDY TOO

Spontaneous comedy spiced the contract signing at the Denver Hilton.

Shouting, "I'm the greatest, here comes the next champion," Clay swaggered in the room.

He first refused to sit beside Nilon, who was seated beside Liston. "I don't want to be near him," Clay said.

Liston, who alternately frowned and smiled, got into the act by pulling out a pair of rabbit fur-coated boxing gloves and asking Clay if he wanted the champion to wear those for Clay's safety.

"SCARED OF NOBODY"

Clay seemed at a loss for words before waving off the offer with his oft-repeated: "I'm the greatest, I ain't scared of nobody."

Liston scored one-round knockouts over Patterson in winning the title at Chicago and in their return match at Las Vegas last July. The second victory over Patterson was his 28th straight and his 35th in 36 bouts. Liston has knocked out 25 opponents.

Clay has recorded 19 victories since turning pro after winning the light heavyweight crown in the 1960 Olympics. In his last appearance he stopped Henry Cooper, British heavyweight champion, in the fifth round last June 18 in London.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — They took off the cast on John Brodie's throwing arm Tuesday and then put it right back on. Not that the followup announcement was unexpected, but the No. 1 quarterback of the sputtering San Francisco 49ers is through for 1963.

Brodie suffered a hairline fracture of his right arm in an automobile accident last May.

HOUSTON (AP) — Hank Majeski, whose 20 years in baseball included 14 years in the majors, signed a contract today as scout in the New York City area for the Houston Colts of the National League.

ONLY 3 BIG TEAMS STILL ARE UNBEATEN

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — And then there were but three. Nine weeks ago every college football team had an unblemished record and every coach dreamed of an unbeaten season. Now only three big time teams remain unbeaten and untied — Texas, Auburn and Princeton. Each meets a formidable rival this weekend but each should squeak through and continue unscathed into the season's final weeks.

Nine weeks ago all football forecasters also had perfect records. Now this corner is only .733 perfect on 267 correct guesses and 97 incorrect ones following last weekend's 41-13-695 figures.

France Urges Common Market To Increase Steel Tariffs; Threat To European Economy

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
PARIS (AP)—France is urging her Common Market partners to increase the trade bloc's tariffs on steel—a step which could make the chicken war look like chicken feed.

If the other five nations don't go along, France could act unilaterally through a loophole in the six-nation steel-coal treaty. Such action would endanger European economic unity.

The French government proposed the steel tariff increase Oct. 7 at a ministerial meeting of the coal-steel pool. The West German government, then headed by Konrad Adenauer, supported the French. The question is due to be decided at a meeting in Luxembourg Dec. 2.

WOULD DOUBLE TARIFF
The French proposal — to return to the tariff schedule that prevailed before 1958—would virtually double the tariff on certain types of steel imported by the six nations — France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

It remains to be seen whether West Germany's new chancellor, Ludwig Erhard, will continue to back up the French demand, described by one source as vehement.

The United States staunchly opposes any increase in European steel tariffs and is considering taking the matter to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), it was learned here today. The OECD links the United States and Canada with Western Europe in an institution designed to remove trade barriers.

DISASTROUS EFFECT
Although a relatively small amount of steel is affected — about 3 million tons—the United States was reported to feel that any hike in steel tariffs could have a disastrous effect on the Western commerce. Steel prices directly affect a whole range of other products.

The United States also feels that a rise in European duties on steel would have an extremely adverse effect on the forthcoming "Kennedy round" of trade negotiations next year within the framework of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) in Geneva.

U. S. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson took the matter up with officials of the steel-coal pool this week when he arrived in Luxembourg on a visit to the Benelux nations. Johnson told leaders of the six-nation ministrations hopes they will continue a policy of low tariffs on steel.

STEEL AT $100
The average price of steel in the community is about $100 a ton. As of last January, the German price was $101.30, the French price $96.60.

The issue comes under the steel-coal treaty and not under the Common Market treaty linking the same six countries. This means individual states, such as France, have a leeway for independent action which is lacking under the Common Market accord.

In the chicken war the United States demanded compensation from the Common Market for the increase in tariffs on frozen fowl from America.

The chicken war is still pending. An impartial GATT panel has been asked to assess the damages which American poultrymen suffer as a basis for eventual compensation.

SABOTAGE LINES

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—An American-owned refinery operated on oil reserves today after terrorists sabotaged its two pipelines Tuesday as workmen were beginning repairs on a companion line blown up the previous day.

It was the seventh and eighth times the pipes were sabotaged. The pro-Communist Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN) were blamed for all the attacks.

DELAY RESCUE OF 11 MINERS ANOTHER DAY

BROISTEDT, Germany (AP)—A miner waited today to make a perilous trip about 200 feet below ground to connect a rescue shaft with a tunnel in a flooded mine where 11 men have been trapped for 13 days. But rescue remained at least a day away.

Rescuers first hoped to lower tools to the entombed men and have them dig a horizontal tunnel to the rescue shaft.

They announced their new plan after the shaft through which the tools were to be lowered missed its target by five feet. Now a miner from the surface, as yet unnamed, will descend the rescue shaft as soon as it is finished to dig into the chamber.

RECEIVING SUPPLIES
The trapped men have been receiving clothing and food since Sunday through a shaft too narrow to send tools. Their food has to be mashed to fit into a capsule an inch in diameter that moves up and down the shaft like an elevator.

Officials estimated at noon it would take at least another 20 hours to get the men out. Drilling resumed early today after crews finished lining the rescue shaft with cement.

Rescuers, in touch with the men by telephone, said they are clam. A doctor reported their condition is good.

A rescuer also descended last Friday when three other men were brought out of another part of the mine, flooded Oct. 24 when a nearby dam broke. Twenty-nine miners are missing and presumed dead.

HUSBAND HELD BIG INSURANCE ON DEAD WIFE

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—T. Eugene Thompson didn't want his wife Carol to know how much insurance he was taking out on her life. An insurance agent told jurors trying Thompson on a charge of killing her.

Floyd Peterson of St. Paul, the agent, testified Tuesday he sold policies for $200,000 each on the lives of Thompson and his wife and had to go to the Thompson home to get Mrs. Thompson's signature.

Peterson said Mrs. Thompson appeared surprised to see him when he told her he was an insurance man sent out by her husband.

Prosecutor William Randall asked if Peterson discussed the amount of the policy with Mrs. Thompson.

"I avoided that," replied the witness, "because Mr. Thompson had indicated he did not want his wife to know the amount of the insurance."

Peterson said he wrote the policies in April 1962. Mrs. Thompson was fatally bludgeoned and knifed by a man who invaded the couple's fashionable St. Paul home last March 6.

Randall said the state would prove it was a killing for hire to free Thompson to marry "the other woman," still unidentified at the trial, and to collect the $1,055,000 insurance he had taken out on the life of the mother of his four children.

Thompson and two other men have been charged with first-degree murder. The other two are awaiting trial.

JUDGE KEIM IS RE-ELECTED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democrat Earl S. Keim, who tried unsuccessfully for the state Supreme Court last year, was re-elected without opposition Monday as judge of the Common Pleas Court of Westmoreland County.

Judge Keim was one of several judges around the state who drew no opposition in the May primary, thus insuring them of election Monday.

Keim resigned his $25,000-a-year county judgeship to make the Supreme Court bid. After he lost to Republican Samuel J. Roberts, then gov. David L. Lawrence re-appointed him to the common pleas bench.

Other judges re-elected without opposition were: Allegheny County Court — Judge Benjamin Lenchner.

Philadelphia County Orphans Court — Judges Kendall H. Shoyer and Harold D. Saylor.

2 Million Stage One-Day Strike

PARIS (AP)—Nearly two million public service workers staged a one-day warning strike in France today, cutting the electric supply, mail deliveries and garbage collection.

Many teachers also struck, closing a number of public schools. The workers claim they are caught in a wage-price squeeze caused by the government's anti-inflation campaign launched last September. The government has offered to grant certain wage adjustments but has refused to meet all union demands.

YORK COUNTY SWEEP BY GOP

YORK, Pa. (AP)—York County Republicans made a clean sweep in Tuesday's election, ousting four incumbents despite a 15,000 vote margin for Democrats in registration.

One of the biggest surprises was the victory of Charles Stein Jr. of York over Democrat Allen C. Spangler for county treasurer.

Republicans also took over domination of the county commissioners for the first time in eight years with the election of Carl Hykes of York R. 4 and Horace M. Grove of Airville.

Incumbent Democrat Harry C. Buser, York Haven, ran third in the race to become minority commissioner.

Democrat Lyman Stambaugh of Spring Grove lost out in his bid for a third term as sheriff. He was beaten by William C. McKinley of Red Lion.

Democrats fared better in the city of York, but Republicans succeeded there, too, in making some inroads.

Incumbent Democrat Ralph M. Schaffner lost to Republican William E. Small for city treasurer.

York County voters turned down the constitutional convention question overwhelmingly. The three proposed constitutional amendments were passed.

Gettysburg College's football team ranks fifth among the nation's small college teams in passing offense in games through October 26 according to the latest statistics of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

The Bullets averaged 218.1 yards for their first seven games and connected for 15 touchdowns. Northern Illinois is the leader with 336.7 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Ron Crouse, the former Littleton High School star and now a senior at Catawba College, is fifth among the punters on his 43.3 average on 23 kicks.

They said they found parts (a) installed in another car, (b) in a basement, (c) in a service station and (d) in a vacant lot.

"The biggest single piece we can find is the hood," an awed detective commented.

SOME THINGS NEVER CHANGE ON TV SHOWS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Television trends change, fashions in stories and themes come and go, but some things go on year after year.

Heroes, of course, always win their fights. Crooks still plan perfect boldups but are always caught.

Killers are always exposed. And they always leave the door unlatched at the scenes so the innocents can walk in just in time to become suspects. If doors were ever locked, hour shows like "Perry Mason" wouldn't last 10 minutes.

FROM SOAP TO HORSE

Television nurse operas appear to be stealing some soap opera stuff. Recently one of the "Bonanza" boys suffered an attack of amnesia for a whole hour. And Tuesday night "Redigo" suffered the same complaint and managed to knock off a bad guy turing the attack.

It wasn't so long ago that about the only place you ran into amnesia was on the daytime serials.

Other old favorites of the daylight sagas were operations and disease. A cursory check of some perennial favorites indicates the big troubles now seem to be emotional—infidelity, immaturity, loneliness and that sort of thing.

Cuba Claims Two CIA Agents Killed

HAVANA (AP)—Two Cubans recruited by the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency for a mission of espionage, sabotage and subversion have been killed, the government-controlled Cuban press reported Tuesday.

Juan Armestoy Rodriguez, one of the alleged agents, was killed by police several days ago, the announcement said. Duenas Landin was executed by a firing squad Monday, the report said.

Officials said Armestoy was sent on at least four missions to Cuba by the CIA.

The Castro regime has stepped up its denunciations of the CIA recently, charging it with a direct campaign of sabotage.

guest-star performance Tuesday night on Mr. Novak. Arthur Godfrey's Thanksgiving Day special originally set for the late afternoon, has been pushed back to the 10-11 p.m. EST spot. Jack Benny had a pretty amusing show Tuesday night that rolled along nicely even with Ed Sullivan doing some acting, but The Richard Boone Show billed as a political farce had script trouble (that couldn't be healed even by his superior repertory group).

RED SINCERITY DOUBTED IN U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Western doubts at the United Nations about the "spirit of Moscow" were heightened today by the latest Soviet harassment of an American convoy to Berlin and a new Communist attack on the West German government.

The latest onslaught against the Bonn regime came in the face of a British warning that Russian interference with Berlin convoys might force the West to take a second look at the Soviet theme of amity.

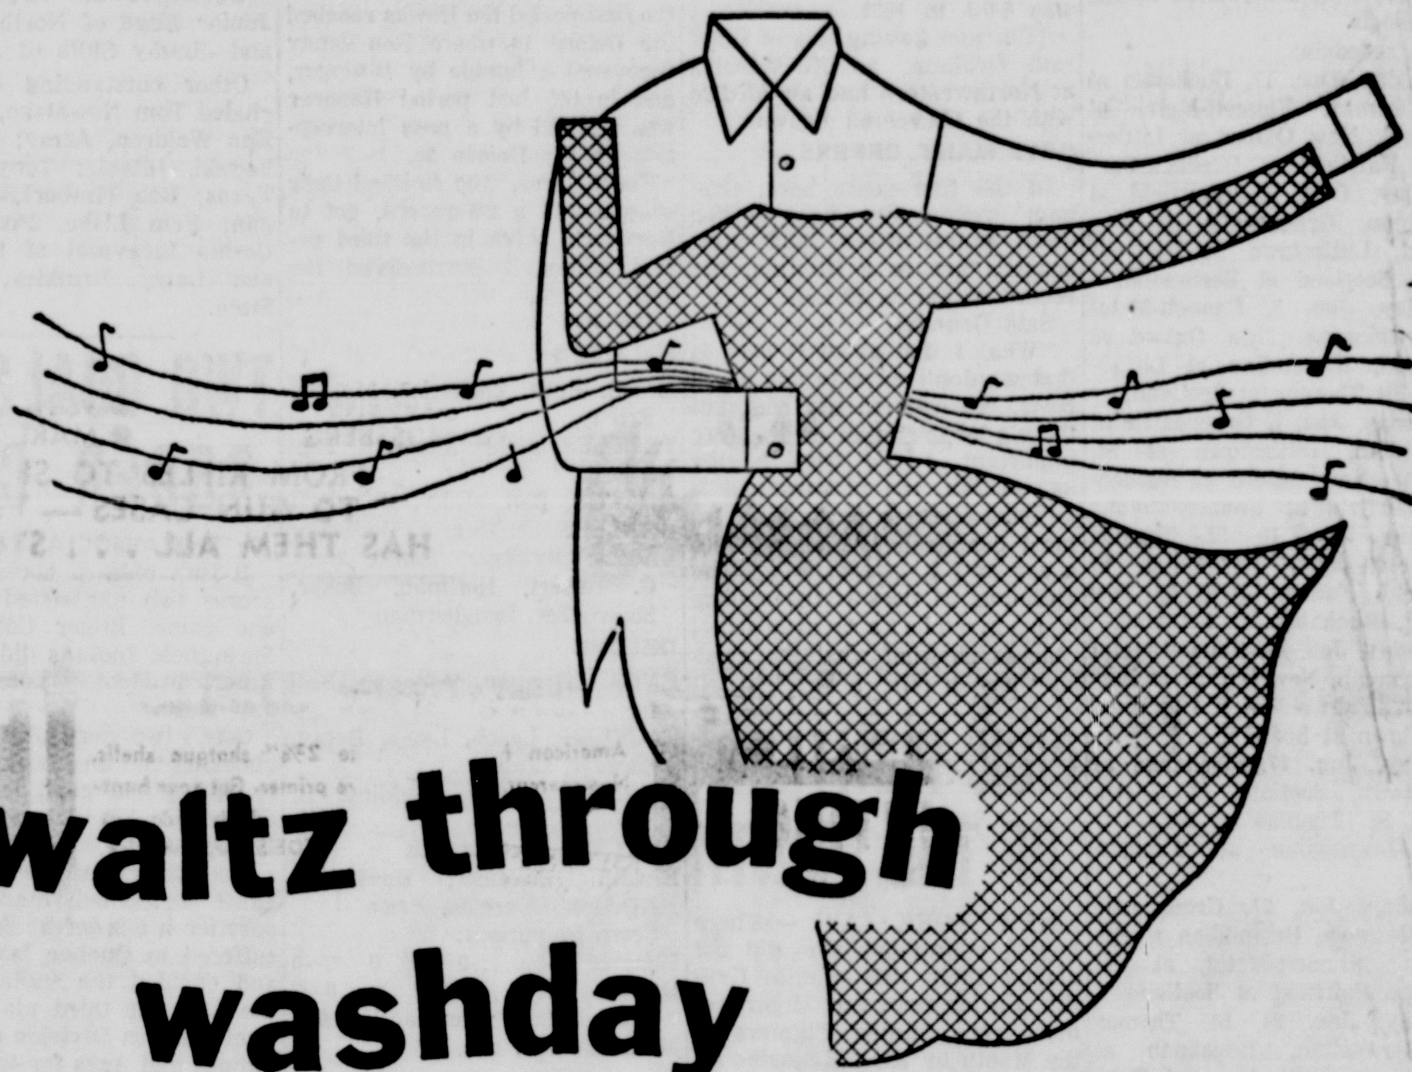

There was no direct Communist reply to the blunt warning by British Minister of State Peter Thomas in the Assembly's Political Committee.

DENOUNCE PLANS
But speakers from Bulgaria, Ukraine and Mongolia who followed him in the disarmament debate denounced plans to have West Germany participate in the U. S.-proposed multinational nuclear force.

In what appeared a reference to the convoy dispute, Ukrainian Foreign Minister L. F. Palamarchuk said a nonaggression pact between NATO and Warsaw Powers would help resolve "the problem of Berlin."

Both Britain and the United States have taken the floor to protest against the running attack on West Germany which contrasts sharply with the Soviet policy of harmony on East-West issues.

He hit 33. As a rookie Ted Williams hit 32.

Mrs. Nhu Will Leave $90 Hotel Suite For Home In Los Angeles; To Stay Here

By DORIS KLEIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu was expected to move out of her $90-a-day suite today and set up housekeeping in the Los Angeles area for herself and her four children.

South Viet Nam's widowed former First Lady changed her mind late Tuesday about joining her three younger children in Rome today. She said she'd fly there here instead as soon as possible.

Mrs. Nhu said she "could not endure the trip at this time," according to George White, manager of the Beverly Hills Hotel where she has been staying.

IS OFFERED HOME

Mrs. Nhu has been offered use of the home of Allen Chase, an associate of television star Art Linkletter, in the exclusive Bel-Air district. Mrs. Chase said she had received no definite word as yet whether Mrs. Nhu will accept the offer.

Chase, who has business connections in Australia and the Orient, met late President Ngo Dinh Diem several times in Saigon, Mrs. Chase explained.

The children, ages 15, 11 and 4, were flown to Rome Tuesday with permission of the new government of South Viet Nam, which overthrew the ruling Diem family Friday in a military coup. The children were in a resort northeast of Saigon during the revolt.

FINANCIAL PROBLEM

Mrs. Nhu had been scheduled to leave this morning on a flight to Rome with her eldest daughter, Le Thy, 18, and her Vietnamese secretary who had accompanied her on her trip abroad.

Informed sources said Mrs. Nhu's decision to remain in the United States may have been influenced by financial problems, possible difficulty in returning here, an outpouring of sympathy for her in thousands of messages from Americans and profitable offers of speaking engagements and magazine articles.

A source close to Mrs. Nhu said Tuesday that she left Saigon five weeks ago with $5,000 spending money for herself, her daughter and her secretary. He said she had no money banked abroad. The only one who had sums of money was her brother-in-law, Archbishop Pierre Martin Ngo Dinh Thuc, "and that was church money," the source said.

There have been rumors in Saigon, however, that Mrs. Nhu and her family had large sums of money banked in France and in New York.

Mrs. Nhu might have had visa trouble had she left the United States and wanted to return. Washington officials said she was traveling on a diplomatic passport issued by the defunct Diem regime. She would need a new visa, they said, which could not be supplied unless she had a valid travel document issued by the new Vietnamese government.

The new government of South Viet Nam said Tuesday it would not request the extradition of Mrs. Nhu.

In a brief appearance in public Tuesday, Mrs. Nhu answered only one newsman's question — whether she felt defeated.

"Never!" she shouted, "I have always felt the immortal soul is much more important than the flesh."

GOP RECOVERS MAJORITY IN STATE HOUSE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republicans and Democrats split the six vacant seats in the State House of Representatives based on unofficial returns in Tuesday's special legislative elections.

The result restored the GOP working majority to 109 votes for the special session on legislative reapportionment that begins next Tuesday. Democrats will have 101 seats.

The winners, however, will not be certified and sworn in until at least the second week of the session. That means the GOP will have to struggle along for the first week and possibly all or part of the second with 106 members — the barest majority, since it takes 106 votes to pass any legislation.

DEMOS RETAIN SEAT

Meanwhile, unofficial returns from the single senatorial special election saw the Democrats retain the seat in Northampton County (18th Senatorial District). It was vacated in August when Sen. Fred B. Rooney Jr., Democrat, resigned to take the seat in Congress he won at a special election July 30 to fill the vacancy left by the death of U. S. Rep. Francis E. (Tad) Walter, Democrat from Easton.

State Rep. Gus P. Verona, Pen Argyl contractor, defeated Republican Earl S. Heffner Jr., Hellertown attorney for Rooney's seat.

Verona's election will make the Senate lineup 27 Republicans and 23 Democrats. Twenty-six votes is a constitutional majority.

The House results were more significant for the GOP because without the extra margin, absenteeism or illness could have presented them with an important majority when the reapportionment legislation—a separate bill for the new House and Senate districts—comes before the lower chamber.

The GOP retained the seats held by Republican assemblymen in Allegheny's 15th District, Dauphin's 1st (Harrisburg) District and Snyder County.

TATE WINS IN PHILADELPHIA MAYOR'S RACE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here are major results in Tuesday's general elections: Kentucky—Democrat Edward T. Breathitt Jr. edged Republican Louie B. Nunn by 15,000 votes to win the governorship, succeeding Democrat Bert T. Combs, who couldn't succeed himself under state law.

Mississippi — Democratic Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. won the governorship on his fourth try, defeating Republican Rubel Phillips in the state's first two-party contest of this century. Gov. Ross Barnett, also a Democrat, was ineligible to succeed himself.

MAYOR TATE WINS

Philadelphia — Mayor James H. Tate, a Democrat, won a full four-year term by defeating James T. McDermott by 66,000 votes. Tate succeeded Richardson Dilworth who resigned in 1962 in an unsuccessful bid for the governorship.

Indiana — Republicans scored major gains in mayoral contests, gaining a 62-49 majority over the Democrats, who had held a 71-37 margin. Democrats held Indianapolis, Evansville and Terre Haute.

New Jersey — Republicans retained control of the State Senate and moved toward taking over the Assembly.

GOP GAINS IN VA.

Virginia — Democrats held control of the Legislature but Republicans made gains.

Pennsylvania — Republican Albert W. Johnson was elected to House seat of the late Rep. Leon Gavign in a normally Republican area. Republican incumbents led for two statewide judgeships.

San Francisco — Democratic Rep. John F. Shelley defeated Republican Harold Dobbs for mayor to succeed George Christopher, a Republican.

The Democrats also captured the mayoralty in Columbus, Ohio, and retained Boston, Cleveland and New Haven, Conn. Republicans retained Tucson, Ariz., and Salt Lake City.

LATTIMER IS AP'S LINEMAN OF THE WEEK

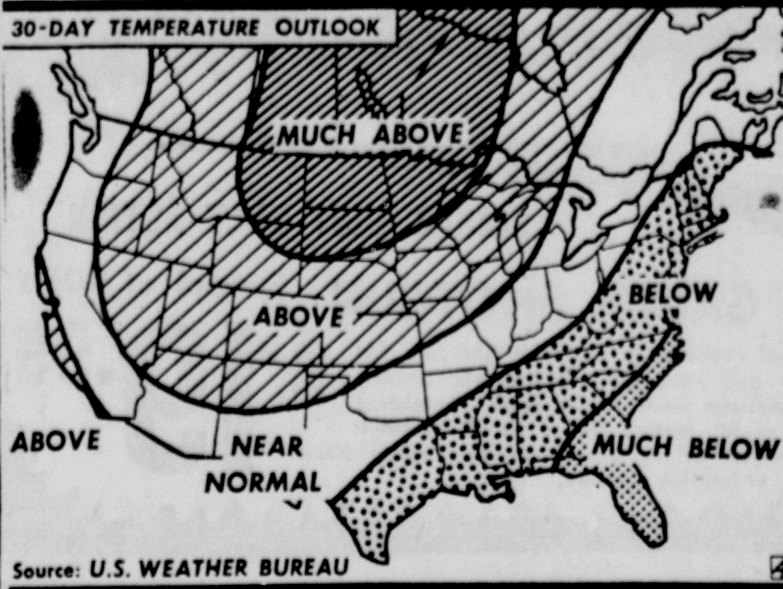

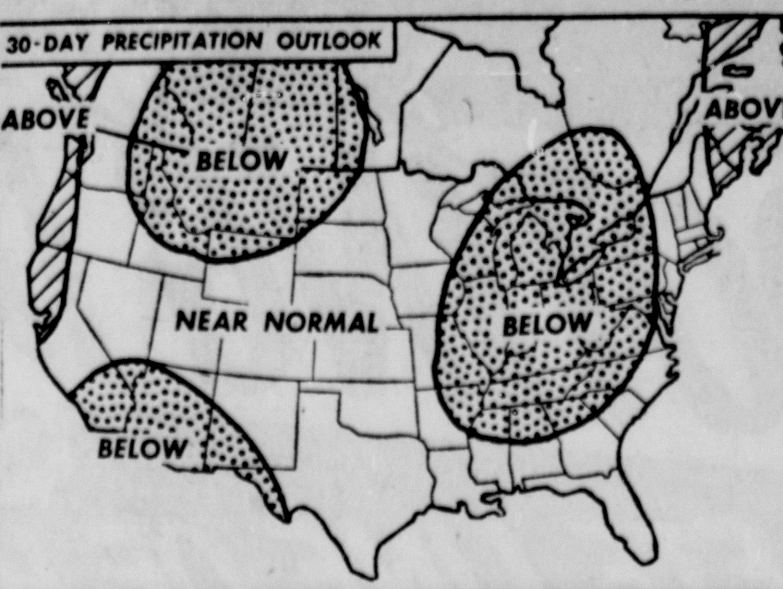

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Earl Lattimer, a Michigan State guard and linebacker who frequently delights the crowd by turning a somersault when running up to his position, has been chosen the Associated Press Lineman of the Week for his role in Saturday's upset victory over Wisconsin.

Lattimer performs his acrobatics out of sheer enthusiasm for the game. He loves to hit. Like most of the Spartan line, he is expected to go both ways. Lattimer has been bulldozing a path for the offense and has been a bear on defense all season.

FORMER FULLBACK

The 5-11, 218-pound senior from Dallas, Tex., was moved from fullback to guard this fall. He was a standout in the Wisconsin game in which MSU beat the favored Badgers 30-13. This knocked Wisconsin out of eighth place in the national rankings and earned the Spartans No. 9 spot. It also kept Michigan State in a tie for first in the Big Ten with Illinois and Ohio State.

In addition to his line play, Lattimer kicked a 44-yard field goal, booting it against a 17-mile-per-hour wind. He's hit two out of three and coaches now figure they will use him for field goals the remainder of the season. He also snagged the only pass interception of the Wisconsin game.

Lattimer was the Lineman of the Week choice over Dick Butkus, 235-pound junior Illinois center and linebacker. Butkus led the rush against Purdue quarterback Ron Drigravio to keep the Illini in Big Ten title contention with a 41-21 win.

CHANGE ELECTIONS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida voters have switched the election of governor and other major state officials to nonpresidential election years. A constitutional amendment was approved 254,619 to 225,255 in Tuesday's election.

for the year by St. Paul's. Robert Crawford, Hanover, pianomist entertained with several acts. The November meeting of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday in the clubhouse at "Sunset Hill Farm," near town. Plans will be made for the anniversary observance. Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. DeGroot.

Bishops Not Pleased With Council's Plan On Powers

By GERALD I. MILLER
VATICAN CITY (AP)—A key document on the government of Roman Catholic dioceses, brought before the Vatican Ecumenical Council Tuesday for the first time, ran into an immediate flood of criticism.

All 12 prelates who spoke on the schema found fault with it. Most said it was inadequate and vague in applying a new theological concept of wider powers for bishops.

James Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles was virtually alone in seeing the schema's proposals as "radical changes in the government of the Church that could be a danger to the unity of the Church."

SHARE AUTHORITY

The schema before the 2,300 prelates is entitled "Bishops and Government of Dioceses." The five-chapter topic deals with the relations between bishops and the Vatican-based administration known as the Roman Curia. The schema also covers national episcopal conferences of bishops. There are now 49 of these.

Council fathers took up the schema a week after voting approval in principle of a concept that all bishops, as a body, share authority with the Pope in governing the Roman Catholic Church.

That concept, from a theological aspect, is being incorporated into the schema De Ecclesia, concerning the nature of the Church. De Ecclesia now is back with the council's theological commission for revision.

GAPS IN DRAFT

The schema on diocesan government was drafted last April during a council recess and contains no reference to the principle of shared power voted last week. Similarly, the schema draft is without reference to a call by Pope Paul VI on Sept. 21 for reform and internationalization of the curia.

These gaps in the draft schema were pointed out today by Bishop Giuseppe Gargitter of Brossanone, Italy. He was paraphrased by council spokesmen as saying the schema on diocesan government was "too generic and vague, and inadequate on some necessary questions such as internationalization and decentralization of the curia."

Bishop Gargitter said there should be no one national concentration in the curia. It is more than half Italian.

NHU CHILDREN ARE IN ROME

ROME (AP)—The three younger children of Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu arrived in Rome Tuesday and drove off to an undisclosed destination with their uncle, Roman Catholic Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc.

The archbishop is in Rome for the Vatican Ecumenical Council. His car met the plane on which the children arrived from Bangkok Thailand, in the company of an official of the U.S. Embassy there.

The children are two boys and a girl—Trac, 15; Wuyh, 11, and their sister, Le Quyen, 4.

Mrs. Nhu is expected here to meet them Wednesday. She is in Los Angeles with another daughter, Le Thuy, 18.

The children's uncle, President Ngo Dinh Diem, and their father, who was Diem's closest

Hot-Rodders Meet In Church Hall

MILWAUKEE (AP)—One of Milwaukee's most active hot rod clubs meets in a church hall.

The Rev. James Groppi, assistant pastor of St. Veronica's Catholic Church, offered the rodgers use of the hall and the club, in turn, has held three annual car washes on the church lot, with the proceeds going to the church building fund.

Name of the club: The Crusin' Angels.

BEE DITCHES BUS

LULING, La. (AP)—Because of a bee, a school bus carrying 63 students ran off the road and dropped into a watery ditch near here, injuring about 40 of the children. Two were seriously hurt.

State police said the driver, Mrs. Anna Hogan, 29, of Des Allemandes reported that a bee got into the bus Monday, attacked her, and she lost control.

U.S. TURNS CAN OVER TO NEW VIET NAM RULE

By ROY ESSOYAN

Associated Press Staff Writer
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Ngo Dinh Can, boss of central Viet Nam in the regime of his brother, President Ngo Dinh Diem, was turned over to South Viet Nam's new revolutionary government Tuesday after he sought asylum at the U.S. consulate at Hue.

U.S. officials were understood to have received assurances from revolutionary officials that Can "would not be lynched and would receive the due process of law."

CLAIM ASSASSINATION

Diem and another brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, his closest adviser, were captured by the rebels Saturday. The revolutionary government said they committed suicide, but reports have been widespread in Saigon that they were assassinated.

Unconfirmed reports circulated in Hue, capital of central Viet Nam, that 180 bodies had been found in a mass grave at Can's mansion there.

Responsible Vietnamese officials said rows of filthy dungeons were found in an old French arsenal on property owned by Can just south of Hue. Mobs on Monday sacked and destroyed the home Can was building there.

CALLED "BLOODY TYRANT"

Buddhist leaders, students and others in Hue long have charged that Can ruled his bailiwick as a bloody tyrant.

Can, who dropped from sight when the coup overthrew Diem's regime last weekend, reportedly went to the U.S. consulate in Hue Monday night and asked for refuge. Consular officials notified the revolutionary government.

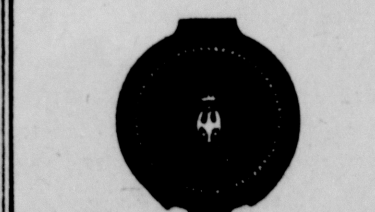

Late this afternoon Can was flown 400 miles south to Saigon in a U.S. military plane and turned over to officials of the new government.

The military junta Monday night named former Vice President Nguyen Ngoc Tho to be premier of a new provisional government that will govern South Viet Nam under the watchful supervision of the military leaders.

Beverly Hills Shudders Over Freeway Proposals

By DIAL TORGERSON
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Actor Clifton Webb gazed at his sprawling, Mediterranean-pink adobe mansion, and wondered what it would look like with a freeway running over the top of it.

Said Webb: "No one ever thought it could happen here." But it could, and it might.

In all this city's Mediterranean-pink mansions—not to mention the glass-walled moderns, the French provincials and the Williamsburg colonials—there is a name to conjure fear.

HOWLS OF PROTEST

The Beverly Hills Freeway. The state has two freeways—one of which happened years ago to Hollywood, and the other which happened recently to West Los Angeles. It wants to link them so people can get from West Los Angeles to Hollywood.

To connect them, freeway builders announced that they planned the Beverly Hills Freeway—multiple lanes speeding traffic swiftly and smoothly through the sovereign city of Beverly Hills.

Then came a howl of complaints.

RAISED $60,000

Rosalind Russell and Lucille Ball went to protest meetings. Novelist Irving Stone wrote fund-raising letters for the freeway fighters. The antifreeway Beverly Hills Improvement Association raised $60,000 almost instantly.

Residents of the hill section of Beverly Hills—which is, truly, one of the nation's loveliest residential areas—have decided unanimously that the best place for the freeway is a mile south, under Santa Monica Boulevard. JUST LIKE TUNNEL.

As Rosalind Russell explains it: "It's called cut and cover, I believe. They cut out the space, put the freeway in it, and cover it over. And there would be no offramps, or onramps. Sort of like a tunnel, you might say."

Exactly like a tunnel, to be precise.

The Beverly Hills Improvement Association wants this cut-and-cover freeway tunneled through the business part of the city, from which neither fume nor commuter could presumably escape.

TEN YEARS AWAY

"There's no question but what a freeway is needed," said Miss Russell. "But they would not have to have offramps. It would only go through Beverly Hills for a mile and a quarter. People could get off before Beverly Hills, or afterward. That way Beverly Hills could be left intact."

The exact route through Beverly Hills won't be selected until perhaps January, and the freeway itself probably won't be built for 10 years.

The state plans, of course, to pay for any property condemned. The homes in the hillside area, where the proposed route runs, would cost an estimated $250,000 each.

Meantime, the state has to send delegates to each protest meeting to listen to the opinions of people who fear a freeway would harm Beverly Hills.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Coral Way Elementary School has become thoroughly bilingual.

Classes in all subjects are taught in both Spanish and English. The idea is to train Cuban refugee children in English and give American youngsters a chance to become completely fluent in Spanish.

Railroad Changes Distance Of Mile

DAWSON SPRINGS, Ky. (AP)—How long is a mile? Only 1,625 feet at Dawson Springs.

It measures that distance on the Illinois Central Railroad tracks, starting at milepost J 165.

The mile was shortened a few years ago when the railroad straightened and relocated some of the track.

Since the mileposts are numbered consecutively between here and Paducah, they had to be relocated to conform to the new route, or have the squeeze put on.

The railroad decided to squeeze.

BEGIN TRIAL IN DEATH OF SOLDIER, 19

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Federal District Court jury hears further testimony today in the trial of three persons charged with manslaughter in the death of a 19-year-old Ft. Belvoir, Va., Army private.

A fourth defendant, Sheila Mae Turner, 20, Arlington, Va., is charged with negligent homicide in the same case.

The victim, Pvt. Edward J. Betcher, Brooklyn, N. Y., was run over and killed by a car, containing the four defendants, in the early hours of June 19.

Charged with manslaughter are Floyd T. Smith, 22; Thomas A. Green, 22, and Leon Dillard Jr., 22, all of Arlington. Miss Turner and the three men are Negroes.

FORCED OFF ROAD

Betcher, who was white, died of a ruptured heart after being run over by the car, allegedly driven by Miss Turner.

The jury was told by Asst. U. S. Atty. Barry Sidman in an opening statement that Betcher and two companions, Pvt. Phillip J. Cheng, 26, Seaside, Calif., were returning to Ft. Belvoir when the incident occurred. He said that when the soldiers' car stopped for a traffic light in southeast Washington another car pulled up on the left.

Spencer testified Tuesday that after the light changed the two cars moved ahead but the vehicle on the left forced the one driven by Betcher to the side of the street.

Betcher, Spencer said, was then pulled from the car by occupants of the other and a fight started. Spencer said he, too, was pulled from the car and struck several times. Cheng also was struck, he said.

Spencer, who could not identify any of the defendants in the courtroom, said all he remembered about the incident was finding Betcher unconscious as the other car drove away.

The defendants later surrendered to police after reading about the death in the newspapers.

U.S. REVIEWS
AID PROGRAM FOR VIET NAM

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is reviewing its policies in South Viet Nam — including its military and aid programs — in preparation for backing Saigon's new military regime.

U.S. officials today described the review as normal procedure before resumption of diplomatic relations with a new government.

The U.S. aid program in South Viet Nam which has been running at the rate of more than $500 million a year is being given a sharp review. The general feeling here is that if the new provisional government cooperates as it is hoped it will, there will be many opportunities for more efficient use of the funds.

There is not much hope though for any sharp reductions as long as the Communist threat remains.

One of the reviews dealt with the military strategy in the fight against the Communist Viet Cong.

President Ngo Dinh Diem, who died in the military coup, had been convinced the Communist forces would attempt to cut South Viet Nam in half by a strike across the country north of Saigon.

Consequently, Diem ordered priority given to the construction of strategic hamlets, the fortified villages, in the north. American military advisers had strongly urged Diem to concentrate the strategic hamlets in the southern delta region where two-thirds of all the Communist raids are made.

It is expected that some of the strategic hamlets that cannot be defended without tying down a large number of troops will be eliminated.

St. Francis tallied its lone six-pointer in the third quarter when Tom Bathon plunged over from the two following a 65-yard drive. The Prepsters had three other

GOP SWEEPS
DAUPHIN CO.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republicans swept the Dauphin County and Harrisburg elections Tuesday by their usual heavy margins, electing a mayor in Harrisburg, a city representative in the General Assembly and a judgeship.

The constitutional convention proposal and Project 70 lost and the student loan and emergency government questions won.

City voters beat all four questions amid reports that M. Harvey Taylor, president pro tempore of the State Senate and GOP leader, called for their defeat at a precinct workers' meeting.

Dr. William K. McBride, 62-year-old surgeon and county GOP chairman who gave up the chairmanship of the county Board of Commissioners, easily defeated Democratic newcomer David Kerr in the Harrisburg mayoralty race by the two-to-one margin chalked up by most GOP candidates.

James S. Bowman, who resigned as the city's representative in the State House, had the toughest fight in unseating Judge G. Thomas Miller, a Democrat given an interim term last year by former Gov. David L. Lawrence.

City Councilman John C. Sullivan was elected to replace Bowman in the legislature, defeating Mrs. Lois Taylor.

Czechoslovakia Catholics Denied Right To Worship

By HANS BENEDICT
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — Under the pulpit in Prague's St. Vitus Cathedral, a lonely woman kneels in silent prayer.

A tourist guide, his voice echoing through the near empty nave, points out the 600-year-old Gothic splendor to a group of visiting Russians. One lights a cigarette in studied boredom.

An old priest shuffles about in the shadows. The pulpit is closed by an iron grill with a rusty lock. It has been empty nearly 14 years. The last to preach from it was the Most Rev. Josef Beran, archbishop of Prague and Roman Catholic primate of Czechoslovakia.

"ONE RULER-GOD"
Communists took over Czechoslovakia in 1948. On a Sunday in June 1949, Archbishop Beran preached from his pulpit that "there is but one ruler above us—God." He was arrested on the spot.

The regime released the 75-year-old archbishop last month. Officially a free man, he is still barred from resuming office. Defiant and in indomitable spirits, Archbishop Beran now awaits the outcome of negotiations between the regime and the Vatican. He lives in a Catholic old-age home in the nearby village of Mukarov. On Sundays he celebrates Mass on a tiny altar flanked by wooden statues of Holy Mary and St. Joseph and covered with coarse linen.

His way from the gilded magnificence of St. Vitus, through police interrogation and solitary confinement to the little house in Mukarov symbolizes the course of Czechoslovakia's Catholic Church.

Places of worship through the country, save a few serving as cultural showpieces, are disapidated. Many have been looted. Many have been repurposed since all church property was socialized, lacks funds for repairs. Parochial schools were shut down long ago.

Officially, parents are free to send their children to religious lessons but few do. "I would lose my job if I let my boy go to the priest," a Prague factory worker said.

PRIESTS JAILED

Of the country's 7,000 Catholic priests before the Communist takeover, less than half are allowed to practice their vocation. The others are believed to be in jail or to have taken jobs in factories or collective farms.

The Protestants, concentrated mainly in Moravia and the western part of Czechoslovakia, are relatively better off than the Catholics. With the help of Protestant officials holding influential positions in the economy, they managed to work out a kind of truce with the regime on a live-and-let-live basis.

GM WILL PAY $1 BILLION TO STOCKHOLDERS

By ROGER LANE
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors Corp. will pay common stockholders $1,136,000,000 in 1963, by far the richest dividend distribution ever made by a business enterprise.

Directors of GM, the world's largest industrial concern, voted Monday to dip into record high earnings for a special $429-million Christmas season disbursement.

The extra dividend, second of the year for GM, was in addition to a regular quarterly payment of more than $143 million. Checks will be mailed to be received by the 1,060,000 stockholders Dec. 10.

BEST IN HISTORY

The melon-slicing stemmed from prospects that promise to make this automobile industry boom year the best in production, sales and earnings in GM's 55-year history.

At the half-way and three-quarters marks, the company reported profits never before equaled by any business.

On a per share basis, the 1963 dividend amounts to $4, half of it in regular quarterly payments, half in "extras." The extra declared Monday amounted to $1.50 a share.

The huge payout was expected to have bullish influence on the stock market when trading resumes Thursday after an election day recess.

Excepting American Telephone & Telegraph Co., no other company has nearly as many stockholders as General Motors. GM leads AT&T and all the rest in shares outstanding with 286,516,705.

OTEPKA FIRED BY STATE DEPT.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Otto F. Otepka was dismissed Tuesday from his job as a State Department security officer on charges of conduct "unbecoming an officer of the Department of State."

Otepka, 48, had been under suspension since Sept. 23, accused among other things of giving confidential information to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

A letter removing him was delivered today. Signed by John Ordway, chief of the department's personnel

Reno Casinos Cease Bonuses

RENO (AP) — Gambling casinos in Reno have abandoned the practice of paying bonuses for special combinations of cards turned up by players at 21 tables.

One casino operator explained the bonuses were added years ago before 21 — or blackjack — was a common game. The aim was to encourage more business.

Now, explains the executive, "players are familiar with the game and play a lot smarter and a lot better. The bonus is not the big inducement it used to be."

DRIVER DIES IN FREAK MISHAP

BLOOMSBURY, N. J. (AP) — A truck driver was killed in a freak accident Tuesday while his rig was being towed from the scene of a breakdown.

The victim was David Gonzalez, 28, of Wayne, Pa.

State police said Gonzalez' tractor-trailer had broken down on the new Route 78 freeway near this Hunterdon County community. He telephoned his employers, Morelli Bros., Malvern, Pa., and two drivers were sent with tractors to assist him.

Driver Lowell Neel, 33, of Cochransville, Pa., picked up the trailer and Wolfgang Geisler, 27, of Collegeville, Pa., towed the tractor which Gonzalez was steering.

As they headed toward Pennsylvania, Neel's trailer broke loose and was struck by Geisler's rig, which he had swerved to avoid a direct collision.

As Geisler swerved, the tractor he was towing with Gonzalez in it was swung in a wide arc. It skidded sideways and overturned, pinning Gonzalez in the cab. He was pronounced dead at the scene. The other men were not injured.

Mary Mills' Record 20 Strokes Better

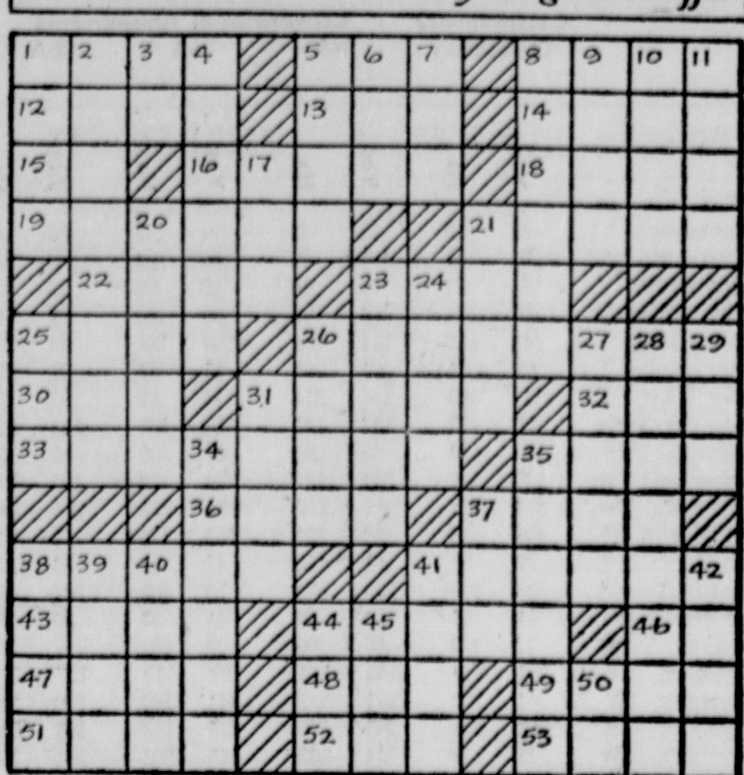

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mary Mills was 20 shots stronger and almost $1,750 better in this year's U. S. Women's Open than in the 1962 event.

The 23-year-old pro from Gulf Hills, Miss., won with a 289 and earned $2,000 this time. Last year she tied for 14th at Myrtle Beach, S. C., with a 309 to earn $262.50.

division, it replied to Otepka's 12-page letter of Oct. 14, requesting that charges against him be dismissed, and upheld the charges.

Otepka had been chief security risk evaluator for the department. A qualified source said that Otepka's case was thoroughly studied and the decision to dismiss him was made on a high level.

Galvanized Steel Important Item

NEW YORK (AP) — A one-time minor member of the steel family has become one of its brightest offspring.

The offspring is galvanized steel — cold rolled sheet steel base with the high corrosion protection of a low-cost zinc coating.

Steelways, publication of the American Iron and Steel Institute, says it was only a few years ago that galvanized steel became an important product. For example between 1951 and 1961, shipments of galvanized steel to the auto industry rose by 798 per cent — 34,743 tons to 311,971 tons a year.

Add a teaspoon of grated orange rind to a package of vanilla pudding at the same time you add the milk and cook as usual. Chill and serve with curls of semisweet chocolate as a garnish. The orange and chocolate flavors are extremely compatible.

Oklahoma Player Fails To See Jinx

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Fullback Jim Grisham of Oklahoma University is a good bed to escape the "jinx" which seems to strike football players after sensational sophomore seasons, in the view of his coach.

Coach Bud Wilkinson notes that players who star as sophomores, as Grisham did, often fall off as juniors because they fail to work as hard.

"I think Grisham has as good a chance to avoid this hazard as anyone I have ever been around," says Wilkinson.

Jim Maloney set a new Cincinnati strikeout record last season when he fanned 265.

FIRST WOMAN IS AWARDED NOBEL PRIZE

STOCKHOLM (AP) — An American scientist Tuesday became the first woman to win a Nobel Prize in physics in 60 years. She will share the prize with a second U.S. scientist and a West German.

Winding up the 1963 Nobel awards, a West German scientist and one from Italy were named to share the prize in chemistry.

The Swedish Royal Academy of Science announced these winners of the physics and chemistry prizes, each worth $51,158; Physics:

Mrs. Maria Goeppert-Mayer of the University of California and J. Hans D. Jensen of Heidelberg for their work in determining the nature of the shell of the atom's nucleus. She is the first woman residing in America to win a Nobel physics prize and the first to be named since Marie Curie of France shared the prize in 1903.

GETS HALF PRIZE

Eugene Wigner of Princeton University, who helped to lay the groundwork for the present advance study of nuclear physics. Wigner will get half the prize. Mrs. Goeppert-Mayer and Jensen will divide the other half.

Chemistry: Prof. Karl Ziegler of West Germany and Prof. Giulio Natta of Italy for their work with molecules that has helped to speed the development of useful plastics.

The award money comes from a $9-million bequest by the late Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite, who directed that the interest on the bequest be distributed among those who benefit mankind.

The formal award ceremony will be held Dec. 12 in Stockholm.

Trick Or Treat Bag Returns Big Yield

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A tip for next Halloween. If you have to be away from home when the youngsters make their rounds, fill a bag with candy and set it on the porch.

John B. Lowe inaugurated the plan two years ago and found that children have a sense of fairness. A note attached to the bag suggested the trick-or-treaters "Take some. Leave some."

Last Halloween, when Lowe returned home the bag contained more candy than he purchased.

2 GOP Superior Court Judges Win Re-election

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
Associated Press Staff Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democrat staved off the sharp Republican election challenge in a decade Tuesday to keep control of Philadelphia city government, while the GOP retained two Superior Court posts and a congressional seat.

Philadelphia Mayor James H. J. Tate, a Democrat, won election to a full term by defeating Republican James T. McDermott by a margin of 397,323 to 330,620 in unofficial returns from the city's 1,640 precincts.

STATE POSTS

In the only statewide elections Republicans Harold L. Ervin and J. Colvin Wright, both incumbents on the Superior Court, held comfortable leads over Democratic challengers J. Sydney Hoffman and State Sen. Paul J. Mahady with more than three fourths of the precincts in.

With returns reported from 7,732 precincts of the state's 9,246, the total showed: Ervin 1,465,675; Wright 1,525,671; Hoffman 1,404,847, and Mahady 1,356,117.

Of the day's major elections only the contest for the 23rd Congressional District seat ran close to form. The district has not elected a Democrat in this century.

JOHNSON WINS

In a special election to fill the seat left vacant by the death last September of veteran Rep. Leon H. Gavin, Republican Albert W. Johnson, State House majority leader, easily defeated Democrat William T. Hagerty. With 402 precincts reported from the 456 in the far-flung eight-county district, Johnson held a lead of 54,092 to 37,049 for Hagerty.

Voters were asked to pass on four constitutional questions. They approved three measures — each an amendment to the present state Constitution.

But it was a nip-and-tuck decision on a question whether the voters wanted a convention next year to rewrite the state's 89-year-old basic law.

The tide was running against the question.

With 7,481 precincts reported, the results showed 825,112 voters favored having a convention, while 844,639 opposed.

The three amendments will: —Allow the state to provide loans and grants for scholarship aid for higher education. An implementing law already on the books will allow the state to underwrite student loans by private lending institutions.

—Provide for interim government in the event of an enemy attack.

NEW STATE PARKS

—Allow the state to borrow up to $70 million through direct ob-

Judge Unseated By Younger Brother

CAMPBELLSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—It's certain Judge Bertram will be on the bench in the 11th Judicial District—but not the present judge, Philip. His younger brother, George, apparently unseated him.

Kentucky's cross-filing law for circuit judge races enabled Philip, 55, and George, 51, both Democrats, to file in the Democratic and Republican primaries last May. Philip won the Democratic nomination, George the Republican.

In Tuesday's election George had 7,110 votes to 5,763 for Philip.

ligation bonds to finance land purchase and park development for conservation.

Six legislative seats also were up for election Tuesday in special contests—three Democratic and three Republican. The respective parties retained their seats. For the GOP that meant restoration of their working majority in the State House to 109-101 over Democrats.

The margin will be important to Republicans next week when a special session on legislative reapportionment begins.

GIRL, 14, FLEES HOSPITAL; HAS CANCER OF HIP

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 14-year-old girl walked away from Metropolitan General Hospital Tuesday night, only hours after a juvenile court judge gave permission for surgery which doctors say is needed to save her life. She has cancer of the hip.

The girl is the daughter of a British war bride, who is divorced. The mother opposed the operation, which could have led to amputation of a leg.

The girl, frightened and despondent, ran away from the hospital wearing only a bathrobe, nightgown and shoes. She is 4-feet-5 and weighs 115 pounds.

"She read in a newspaper about the court approving the surgery, and was very despondent when she learned she might lose a leg," a nurse said.

East Cleveland police checked the girl's home, but her mother was not there.

The mother was not in the courtroom Tuesday when Judge Walter G. Whitlatch granted permission for surgery. The mother was represented by a court-appointed attorney.

Doctors say that without the operation the girl faces certain death, but that with it—and the strong possibility of losing her leg—she has a 20 per cent chance of complete recovery.

The mother objected to the operation because her daughter's chances of survival are so small and because she feels the loss of a leg would be too great a handicap for the girl.

Juvenile court has jurisdiction in the case because the girl has been under the care of the county since she ran away from home a year ago.

SENATORS SPLIT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate adopted by a 42-40 roll call vote a foreign aid bill amendment of Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., to cut the development loan fund authorization by $25 million to $950 million. Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., voted against the amendment.

WATERVILLE, Maine (AP)—Waterville voted Tuesday to retain its bicameral government, rejecting 1,201,090 a proposed charter change to a unicameral unit.

Only one municipality in the in the nation—Everett, Mass.—still retains a two chamber governing body.

Va. Thanksgiving Claim Is Honored

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Virginia's claim to the first Thanksgiving has received official notice from a man from Massachusetts—John F. Kennedy.

In his Thanksgiving proclamation Tuesday, President Kennedy said, "Over three centuries ago, our forefathers in Virginia and in Massachusetts far from home in a lonely wilderness set aside a time for thanksgiving."

John J. Wicker Jr., of Richmond, who has waged an almost single-handed campaign for recognition of Virginia's Thanksgiving, expressed delight.

Wicker claims Virginians celebrated Thanksgiving Dec. 4, 1619, more than a year before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

PRESSURE UP ON KINZUA

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was reported today to be under increasing pressure to resolve a deadlock which could halt construction at the Kinzua, Pa. dam and reservoir before the end of the year.

At issue is a bill to authorize additional spending in seven river basins, including the Ohio with its Allegheny River dam and reservoir.

The House Public Works Committee said it had been advised by the Army Engineers that any stoppage of work at projects in the seven basins will increase over-all costs by many millions of dollars.

In the Columbia River Basin alone, the Engineers said, a work stoppage would mean $20 million in added costs plus another $2 million to resume construction after congress authorizes additional spending.

Col. Bert De Melker, district engineer at Pittsburgh, Pa., has said additional expense would be incurred if work at the Kinzua project were stopped but no exact figures were available.

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP)—A 23-year-old man forfeited $50 bail in Kenosha County Court Tuesday on a charge of malicious destruction of property.

Authorities said Richard Hawthorne threw his mother-in-law's lawnmower through the picture window of her home.

CIVIL RIGHTS BIG FACTOR IN TUESDAY VOTE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats kept control today of such keenly contested posts as the Kentucky and Mississippi governorships and the Philadelphia mayor's chair.

But tallies from Tuesday's elections led the GOP to speak of "dramatic inroads" into Democratic strongholds.

The Kentucky race as a close one. Mississippi Republicans, mounting their first serious attempt on the governorship since Reconstruction days, rolled up a considerable vote in defeat.

In Philadelphia, Democrats kept their grip on City Hall by about 67,000 votes—but this was their smallest margin in a mayoral race in 10 years.

CIVIL RIGHTS

In all of these races—plus some others—the issue of civil rights figured.

Politicians will be studying the tallies for 1964 omens to learn for example, whether a so-called "white backlash" against the militant Negro drive for more and better jobs, freer choice of housing and other aims, will hurt President Kennedy next year.

Republicans could look with satisfaction on such states as Indiana—where dozens of mayors' posts switched from Democratic to Republican. But the Indianapolis City Hall stayed Democratic by a narrow margin.

In San Francisco, Rep. John F. Shelley, D-Calif., apparently won out for mayor in an election officially billed as non-partisan. His opponent was supervisor Harold Dobbs, Republican.

GOP WINS IN N.J.

In New Jersey, the Republicans kept control of the State Senate by a sweep, and moved toward taking the Assembly from Democrats.

In Kentucky a still-incomplete count showed Democrat Edward T. Breathitt Jr. the winner for the governorship, but by only about 15,000 votes out of some 860,000 votes thus far counted.

His Republican foe, Louie B. Nunn, charged voting irregularities and asked supporters to "stand by the voting machines and ballot boxes."

Nunn, after first conceding defeat, said "the race is not over yet." But it appeared the uncounted precincts could not change the outcome.

Nunn, in his campaign, had borne down heavily in criticism of an order, issued by retiring Democratic Gov. Bert Combs, barring racial discrimination in businesses licensed by the state. He also had roundly criticized the Kennedy administration.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies beefed up their roster today by recalling six first-year players from their farm teams.

The national League club announced it is adding three-right handed pitchers and an outfielder from Bakersfield in the Carolina league. They are pitchers Dave Bennett (9-6), Darrell Sutherland (9-4) and Rick Wise (6-3) and outfielder John Briggs (2-97).

Also, two left-handed pitchers are being added—Jim Miller (2-1) of Miami in the Florida State League and Dave Roberts (9-3) of Spartansburg in the Western Carolina League.

At the same time, the parent clubs sent outfielder Mickey Harrington to Little Rock in the International League and purchased Pat Corrales, an outfielder who hit .260 with Chattanooga in the Sally League.

Earlier, the Phillies sold eight players to Little Rock. Included were veteran Frank Torre, who hit .250 in 97 games, and catchers Bob Oldis and Earl Averill, who hit .268 in 47 games. The club also purchased Gary Kroll, a 22-year-old right-hander who won 11 games last season with Little Rock.

Unemployed Negro Named Supervisor

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—An unemployed Negro has been elected to the Niagara County Board of Supervisors. He reportedly is the first of his race to win a seat on the board.

Joseph H. Profit, 28, a Democrat who came here from Alabama 10 years ago, defeated the Republican incumbent Tuesday, 1,176 to 1,131, in the 12th Ward. The ward has a Negro and white population.

Profit is a native of Montgomery, Ala.

HORSE SALES HIT NEW HIGH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sales appear to be headed for a new all time high in the 1963 Harrisburg standardbred horse sale this week.

For the second straight day, Tuesday, sales went over previous records as 206 animals were sold for a total of $817,700. The show winds up Thursday with officials optimistic of a new all time high.

Twenty-five horses brought $10,000 and over in the auction sales Tuesday. The top price of the day was the $41,000 paid for Ranger Knight by W. and D. Bernard of Hawthorn, N. Y. The co-signer was E. H. Minniear, Aiken, S. C.

Keith Waples of Montreal, Canada, paid the second highest price, $36,000 for Meadow Battles.

Dana Irving, Oxford, Pa., paid $31,000 for Golden Make It, a 2-year-old trotter who won seven stakes in 1963.

Roy E. Cleveland, Camp Hill, Pa., disposed of his stock, with four horses selling for more than $10,000. The top price of $22,000 was paid for Apex Hanover by Tom Gillen, Carbondale, Pa.

Jim Maloney of the Cincinnati Reds pitched a one-hitter, a two-hitter and a three-hitter last season in posting 23 victories.

James MARLOW Reports

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's like a gloomy class in arithmetic: subtract, add a little, subtract, subtract. This is the way Congress handles foreign aid, as it did in the past and is doing now.

One thing is sure: The President gets less than he asked. Hostility to the program grows yearly, in and out of Congress, as it has since it started in 1947. It's worse now. The aid in 16 years has gone over $100 billion.

Tactics and figures tell the mood and the story. QUICK WITH CLIPPERS Last year President Kennedy asked almost $5 billion. The House, always quicker with the clippers than the Senate, cut it fiercely. The alarmed Senate voted more than the House although less than Kennedy requested.

Because the two houses differed, they had to reach a compromise. The result: Congress voted roughly $4.8 billion, or, again roughly, $200 million below Kennedy's figure of almost $5 billion.

But—and this is an important point. This was just Congress voting its authorization on how much could be spent. It was the ceiling. Congress still hadn't voted a dime for spending.

It had to do this in the next step: its appropriation bill. Some more pulling and hauling between the two houses, another compromise, and finally Congress voted about $4 billion, or $1 billion less than Kennedy's figure.

NEW COMPLICATIONS This year the same problem but with complications because Kennedy meanwhile had appointed a committee of distinguished citizens, headed by

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, to examine the whole foreign aid program and make recommendations.

Last January Kennedy asked $4.9 billion, or almost as much as the year before. But then the Clay committee came in with its report which seemed to suggest, although this all got confused, Kennedy could do with $4.4 billion.

One of the most constant critics of foreign aid in Congress met this suggestion with some derision. This was Rep. Otto Passman, D-La. He said the committee suggestion was "absolutely meaningless."

CONFIRMED PREDICTION He observed that Congress "cuts the President's foreign aid request an average of $1 billion each year" anyway.

Kennedy, repeatedly quick to compromise when he runs into trouble in Congress, compromised. Bowing to the Clay proposal, he said that instead of asking $4.9 billion he would settle for $4.5 billion. The House got to work.

On Aug. 25 House Republicans and Southern Democrats made Passman a good prophet by voting only $3.5 billion, or $1 billion less than Kennedy asked.

DENOUNCED GOP Kennedy as he has before when his own Democrats teamed up with Republicans to give him a drubbing, denounced the Republicans and called the House action "shortsighted, irresponsible, and dangerously partisan."

Even Clay came to his rescue and said such a cut could "badly damage the U.S. position in the free world."

This criticism, in view of what followed, may have taken some of the economy out of the Republicans although, besides some outright opposition, there is a chilling coldness in the Senate to foreign aid.

FIGHT GOING ON The Senate Foreign Relations Committee rejected the House figure of $3.5 billion—the billion-dollar cut—and decided on $4.2

FORMER VEEP TAKES REINS IN VIET NAM

By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—A provisional government headed by former Vice President Nguyen Ngoc Tho took the reins of government in South Viet Nam Tuesday under the watchful supervision of the military leaders who overthrew President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Recognition by the United States and a number of other nations was expected to follow quickly the approval of the predominantly civilian government by the ruling military junta Monday night.

Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, 47, leader of the coup that ousted the Diem regime, said in a proclamation that a Republican form of government will be retained although the junta will be the country's final authority.

WAR PREFERENCE Minh, who assumed the position of chief of state, said his committee of generals will give its chief attention to direction of the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Until revision of the 1956 constitution, Minh said, legislative and executive power will center in the junta but will be exercised by the provisional government. He explained that the junta will retain active authority over national defense, security and finances.

Tho, 55, was vice president in the Diem regime. A Buddhist, he tried to conciliate the dispute between his coreligionists and Roman Catholic President Diem but his efforts were frustrated by Diem's tough brother and chief adviser, Ngo Dinh Nhu.

SAYS U.S. AIDED

In Washington, in a speech to the House of Representatives, Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., said the rebels must have received encouragement from the United States.

Zablocki, head of a Foreign Affairs subcommittee that visited South Viet Nam before the coup, called the deaths of Diem and Nhu repulsive assassinations.

Zablocki said if U.S. officials knew of the revolt and "failed to bring pressure to insure safe conduct out of the country for Diem, then the shadow of blame falls" on the United States.

billion, which is $300 million less than Kennedy asked but $700 million more than the House thought right.

But then the committee's bill went to the full Senate floor where a fight has been going on for days to chop the committee's figure. Finally Democratic and Republican leaders got together and decided:

What the House approved was too little but what Kennedy and the Foreign Relations Committee suggested was too much. So the two parties leaders said foreign aid should be $3.8 billion. The fight goes on; the Senate hasn't voted.

MAY NEED COMPROMISE

If it votes more than the House, there will have to be the inevitable compromise. But, when all that's finished, this will still be just the authorization, or top-limit figure, on foreign aid.

Then the two houses will have to vote the actual money to be spent in an appropriation bill. And, like last year, it may be $1 billion less than Kennedy wanted, which will mean even a smaller total than last year.
